$5,000,000 FIRE IN SOUTH BROOKLYN

Two Big British Steamships Engaged in Munition Carrying and Forty Lighters Swept by Fire Believed to be the Result of a Bomb Plot.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New York, Feb. 16.—Two big British steamships, partly laden with munitions and other war supplies for the allies, forty lighters and their cargoes of oil, cotton and shells, and Pier No. 36 on the South Brooklyn waterfront, were destroyed early today by a fire which is believed to have resulted from a bomb plot.

A third British munition ship, the Belagio, was badly damaged, but the fire on this freighter was extinguished by firemen after it had raged for five hours.

The total loss is estimated to be at least $5,000,000.

The steamships Bolton Castle and Pacific, owned by the Castle Line, were swept and wrecked by the flames.

Thousands of tons of war munitions stored in Pier No. 36 were burned.

The fire followed an explosion and, fed by cotton and oil, spread so rapidly that the firemen were unable to stem its progress.

Two seamen are missing.

Captain B. V. Smith, of the Pacific, and Mrs. Smith, were injured so badly they will probably die.

Sixty naked seamen, who leaped from the ships into the water, were picked up by tugs and fire boats.

The fire, which is the biggest yet attributed to war plotters in this vicinity, was one of the most spectacular ever known on the Brooklyn waterfront. Firemen on the fireboats risked their lives amid the piles of gasoline and ammunition while fighting the conflagration.

As the flames reached the shells there were explosions which sent clouds of burning brands high above the roaring flames.

Mrs. Smith, wife of the master of the Pacific, fell into the ice coated water, and her husband, although suffering a dislocated arm, plunged in after her.

The three great freighters, the smallest of which was 3,919 tons burden, were tied to the long pier, when an explosion occurred shortly before 2 o'clock.

Instantly the pier was enveloped in flames while automatic fire alarms began sounding in half a dozen fire stations. Both land firemen and fire boats responded quickly as possible, but before they reached the scene the pier was a mass of flames and the fire was crawling over the Pacific and Bolton Castle. A column of fire more than 100 feet high lighted up the water and the shore.

Within a few minutes after the outbreak of fire there was a sharp series of detonations and these continued until after the fire was under control.

The Belagio, which was nearest the open channel, had just caught fire when the tiny tugboat Belonia got a line on board and began towing her toward the statue of Liberty while the seamen on board fought desperately to extinguish the flames.

Meanwhile three other tugs and a dozen fireboats were engaged in helping rescue women and children from burning lighters.

Police reserves, called from four stations, took charge of the rescued, most of whom were in their night clothing.

The Bolton Castle had arrived from Manila several days ago and had finished unloading her cargo only yesterday. She carried a crew of 55, of whom 46 were Chinese and 12 Englishmen. The Chinese seamen became panic stricken and jumped overboard with screams of fright as the explosions grew more and more violent.

Deputy Fire Chief Lally, who arrived at the scene of the conflagration when it was at its height, described it as the "biggest waterfront fire he had ever seen."

As soon as the flames were controlled an official inquiry was begun.

SUNDAY MOVIES AT Y. M. C. A.

New American Sunday to be Observed With Illustrated Lecture.

New American Sunday will be observed Sunday afternoon, February 20, at the Y. M. C. A. with a mass meeting for men at which Elmer Gallows of New York will speak. "The American in the Making," is Mr. Gallows' subject and deals with the alien, the idea being to have New American Sunday dedicated to the alien, to make the new country more hospitable. The lecture will be illustrated with motion pictures showing the alien citizen from the time of his arrival on these shores, his adaptation of himself to industrial conditions and the good influence of opportunity for study such as the Y. M. C. A. and night school offer.

The lecture and pictures will be free and will be the first of a series of illustrated lectures to be given on Sunday afternoons.

To Increase Salary.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Albany, Feb. 16.—Senator Walton has introduced a bill which seeks to amend Chapter 65 of the Laws of 1906, by increasing the salary of the under-sheriff of Ulster county from $1,300 to $1,600 a year. The bill was referred to the committee on internal affairs of the senate.

TYPHOID CHECKED BY PROMPT WORK

Source of Contagion Was Shut Off and No New Cases Have Developed—Dairy Will be Disinfected and Permitted to Resume Business.

The incipient typhoid fever epidemic in this city has been checked and no new cases have developed since those last reported. Health Officer Frank A. Johnston said this morning that aside from the ten cases that developed in the families who were consumers of milk from the suspected dairy, he did not believe that any more cases would develop. All ten cases were quarantined as soon as reported.

In regard to the suspected typhoid carrier employed on the local dairy the health officer said that the carrier had been discharged by his employer as the evidence has been conclusive that he was the man who spread the disease. It developed from the examination made by the health officer that the carrier had done no milking on the farm until six weeks ago when one of the regular milkers became ill and he was put to work. Shortly after that typhoid fever cases began to develop.

Health Officer Johnston and Sanitary Inspector Harold Clarke will thoroughly fumigate and disinfect the dairy this week and when the work has been thoroughly done the dairyman will be allowed to sell his milk in the city. As soon as it was suspected that the typhoid came from the milk supply the health officer excluded the milk from the city.

The first case of typhoid fever this year in the city was reported to the health officer on Tuesday, February 8, and the same day the source was traced to the dairy which lies inside the city limits, and the milkman was forbidden to deliver any more milk in the city until the matter was thoroughly sifted to the bottom.

Great credit is due to the health officer and sanitary inspector who assisted him in tracing the source of the disease and it was through their work that only ten cases developed in this city instead of many times that number which would have been the case but for the steps taken in tracing the source of the trouble to the milk supply and shutting down on the delivery of the milk in the city.

With the quarantine precautions being taken it is thought that all danger of a typhoid fever epidemic are at an end.

KOSCIUSKO LODGE FAR IN THE LEAD

Most intense interest is being manifested among the Odd Fellows of the city over the pinochle tournament now in progress between the three local Odd Fellows lodges and any one who knows of something new and novel in the way of playing a winning game of pinochle is earnestly requested to get in touch at once with Captain Whitbeck of Kosciusko Lodge, Captain Hasbrouck of C. S. Clay Lodge or Captain Bush of Aretas Lodge. These men every night go to sleep with a rule book under their pillows and instead of reading the morning paper at breakfast they are busily studying the rule of the game. Even while at work it is said that every spare second is being utilized in planning new plays. Considerable interest attends the game to be played this evening in the rooms of Aretas Lodge.

The standing of the teams to date follows:

	Won.	Lost.
Kosciusko Lodge	19	7

VICTORIA CROSS FOR E-11 CAPTAIN AND DISTINGUISHED SERVICE MEDALS FOR CREW AFTER SINKING OF 20 SHIPS.

London, Feb. 16.—For sinking at least 20 Turkish and German ships in the Sea of Marmora, Lieut. Commander Martin Eric Nasmith, E-11, and the thirty members of the crew have been granted signal honors by the King. Lieut. Commander Nasmith receives the Victoria Cross and Lieut. D'Oyley Hughes, who swam to shore pushing a raft carrying explosives before him, in an attempt to blow up the Ismid Railway viaduct, is awarded the Distinguished Service Cross. The other members of the crew are awarded Distinguished Service Medals.

The exploits of the British submarine E-11, Lieutenant Commander Nasmith in command, are comparable with, if they do not exceed, those of the famous German submarine U-39. They began in May and ended in December, when the British abandoned the Gallipoli campaign. The E-11 sank no fewer than twenty ships.

For weeks Constantinople was in a state of terror and all shipping on the Sea of Marmora was at the mercy of the submarine and her crew of thirty men.

ELLENVILLE MEN URGING HIGHWAYS

First Annual Banquet of Board of Trade Proves a Conspicuous Success—A Banquet from Kingston.

The first annual banquet of the Ellenville board of trade was held at the Mitchell House on Monday evening, February 14, 1916. The genial landlord, I. W. Millard, spared neither trouble nor expense to make the occasion an interesting and enjoyable one.

The dining room was profusely and artistically decorated with smilax, carnations, lilies and potted plants, while the national colors occupied a prominent place, expressing a spirit of patriotism which inspires the heart of every true business man.

Over one hundred guests, besides a number of out of town friends sat down to one of the finest dinners ever served in the village of Ellenville. After thoroughly enjoying the repast, cigars were lighted and all were in readiness for the intellectual part of the program, which constituted no small part of the entertainment.

Bert H. Terwilliger acted as toastmaster, and the first to respond was H. Westlake Coons, of this village, followed by Judge George H. Smith of Monticello. Both these men spoke to the advantages good roads gave to a town, and suggested plans for the improvement and betterment of Ellenville. H. J. Sables of Liberty then gave a short history of the board of trade of his town, and the development and success of that organization along the lines that had been suggested. Frank Seamon, of Yama Farms, spoke of the enthusiasm of people, who were visitors of this place and vicinity at all times of the year, over the natural facilities and beautiful scenery among these mountains and valleys. As proprietor of Yama Farms Inn, he had entertained over thirty-five hundred guests, from the most prominent people in the land, during the past year, and was naturally greatly interested in the problem of good roads, especially so in the project of the state road which is just now agitating the minds of the business men of the town of Wawarsing. Other forcible and enthusiastic speeches followed by C. Dwight Divine, Rev. W. H. Moser. Taken together, this first banquet of the Ellenville board of trade was the most interesting and enthusiastic gathering of its kind ever held in our village.

The flowers and potted plants used as decorations for the occasion were furnished by Burgevin of Kingston, through the courtesy of our local merchant, George J. Hornbeck.

General Roe is Suggested.

General Charles F. Roe, U. S. A., retired, is being urged for appointment as Secretary of War. He is a graduate of West Point, fought in the Sioux campaign and now resides in Highland Falls.

Profits in Potatoes.

Three men who stole a load of potatoes in Troy were arrested in Newburgh Tuesday and will be returned up the river for trial. The trio had $130 when apprehended.

UNKNOWN HOBO DIES IN HOSPITAL

Bullet Fired by Charles Guadagnolo Proved Fatal—No Clue to Identity of the Dead Man—Guadagnolo Arraigned.

The unknown hobo who was shot through the head by Charles Guadagnolo in the latter's saloon at Saugerties Monday night, died at the Kingston City Hospital at one o'clock this morning, and his identity remains unknown.

From the time that Guadagnolo shot him through the head, the stranger remained unconscious until he died. A careful examination was made of his clothing for some clue which might lead to his identification, but there was nothing about his person or clothing which would furnish a clue.

This morning a young man, apparently fresh from a tramping trip and possibly a hobo himself, called at the hospital to see the stranger. He did not see the dead man, whose body had been removed to the undertaking establishment of Coroner Ernest A. Kelly, but he said he had met a man who had said he knew the stranger, and that he was a German who hailed from Paterson, N. J. At the hospital, the visitor was advised to go to Coroner Kelly and impart his information to him, and also to view the remains in the possibility that he might actually recognize the dead man, but he did not appear at Coroner Kelly's morgue.

Guadagnolo was taken to Saugerties on the 11:14 o'clock West Shore train for arraignment before Justice of the Peace Chidester. He was accompanied by Andrew J. Cook, whom he retained as his counsel on Tuesday, and City Judge William D. Brinnier, Jr., whom he retained this morning, and at Saugerties he was met by Benjamin Rowe, who he had also retained. It was expected by his counsel that he would waive examination. H. LeRoy Lounsbury of the district attorney's office appeared for the People.

An autopsy was performed on the dead stranger this afternoon at Coroner Kelly's morgue by Dr. A. A. Stern of this city and Dr. B. W. Gifford of Saugerties, who was called in immediately after the shooting on early Tuesday morning.

EVERYBODY INVITED TO THE INSPECTION

Captain Meagher of Company M through the press of the city invites the members of the Old Guard Association of Ulster county and the general public to be present at the annual inspection and muster of Company M, which takes place this evening, at 8 o'clock. The local guard commander will provide seats for the members of the old guard on the drill floor of the armory, so that they can see and review the development of the science of war, as practiced by the National Guard of this state. The vets will see that the present day citizen soldier employs tactics such as they never have witnessed.

The general public will find enough seats in the gallery to accommodate about 400 persons. At former inspections of Company M the attendance of spectators, has always made a favorable impression upon the inspecting officers, who are always ready to comment upon the interest shown by the citizens of Kingston in the National Guard.

One reason for lack of interest in the National Guard is the fact that its organizations are never seen by the general public except on occasions of ceremony, when the real significance and purpose of establishment are obscured by the object of its assembly, and its serious purpose is lost.

The inspection of Company M should stimulate interest in the National Guard in this city, a highly desirable thing at this time, and it should be a matter of pride of this city that they have a National Guard Company the equal of any in the state.

EUREKA.

Eureka, Feb. 16.—William Ackery spent from Saturday until Monday with Mahlon Donovan.

Rumor is they have hired a Baptist minister, who will reside in the parsonage, so Walden Van Wagner will have to move March 1.

Mrs. George Dierfelder called on Mrs. Orin Fuller Saturday afternoon.

Charles Sheeley of Grahamsville has been drawing logs for Orin Fuller.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Porter spent Monday in Grahamsville.

Ralph Hoonbeck of Lackawack Hill called at Mahlon Donovan's on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Rance Quick spent one day last week with her daughter, Mrs. G. Quick.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Smith of Sugar Loaf called on Mrs. Smith's parents here Saturday.

TWO ORCHESTRAS AT SHRINERS' BALL

Two orchestras will play this year at the Shriners' ball at the armory on next Wednesday evening as the music committee has engaged Muller's orchestra of twenty pieces, and also Edward Brown's celebrated colored orchestra of New York city. This is the same colored orchestra that made such a hit at the ball last year but instead of six pieces it will be augmented to twelve pieces for this occasion.

A ladies' committee is being arranged and the names will be published later. Tickets for the ball are selling rapidly and undoubtedly a large sum will be realized for the benefit of the Industrial Home. The hall will be artistically decorated for the occasion and the Shriners are sparing no efforts to make it even a bigger success than last year.

Field excursions to the lairs of the borers will be directed by Prof. Gheen on March 9th, with Mr. Shepard and prominent citizens in the training class.

An Injured Ankle.

Harry T. Lown of Prospect street, who is employed on a freight train of the Ulster & Delaware railroad, was painfully injured Saturday when a fellow worker, who was helping him carry an oil barrel, slipped, and the barrel fell on Lown's ankle, badly bruising the ligaments. The accident occurred above Phoenixia and the injured man was not given medical aid until five hours after the accident happened, arriving at Kingston at 6 o'clock in the afternoon. Dr. Stern dressed the injury and Lown, confined to his home, is doing as well as can be expected under the circumstances.

Other forcible and enthusiastic speeches followed by C. Dwight Divine, Rev. W. H. Moser. Taken altogether, this first banquet of the Ellenville board of trade was the most interesting and enthusiastic gathering of its kind ever held in our village.

The flowers and potted plants used as decorations for the occasion were furnished by Burgevin of Kingston, through the courtesy of our local merchant, George J. Hornbeck.

TOWN AND VILLAGE LAW AMENDMENTS

Special to The Freeman.

Albany, Feb. 16.—Bills amending the town and village laws continue to be presented both in the senate and assembly, though action on them is likely to be tardy. Up to date there have been more than a score of these bills, covering many propositions.

A measure amending the town law affecting the financial report of a supervisor has been introduced by Assemblyman McGinnies. This bill provides that when the biennial town meeting is held at the time of the general election, the financial account of the supervisor is to be rendered on the 28th day of December, instead of on the third Tuesday day in December, as is provided at present.

Another bill amending the town law has just been introduced by Assemblyman Murphy of Suffolk county. It provides that no proposition shall be voted upon at a town meeting unless an application for its submission has been filed at least twenty days before the town meeting by the town officers, or at least 25 taxpayers in towns of less than 10,000 inhabitants and 50 taxpayers in towns of more than 10,000 inhabitants.

Senator G. L. Thompson of Nassau county has introduced two bills amending town laws also. One inserts a new section in relation to authorizing water districts to acquire water works. The other inserts a new article in relation to park districts.

County supervisors are authorized under a bill by Assemblyman Taylor, to appropriate moneys for soldiers and sailors of the Spanish American war as is the case of soldiers and sailors of the civil war.

The bills amending the village law recently introduced include the measure of Assemblyman Fullagar, which authorizes villages to regulate or prohibit the keeping of swine within the limits of a village.

Another bill amending the village law provides that if a surplus remains in the department of the village government after the payment of outstanding obligations, such surplus may be applied to the payment of any existing village obligations or transferred to the general fund.

Oldest Resident of Walpole.

Mrs. Ann Elizabeth Nichols celebrated her 91st birthday Monday at her home in Walpole where she has resided more than a half century. Mrs. Nichols is a native of Wallkill, Ulster county. Thirteen grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren sent greetings on her anniversary.

Named a Tax Appraiser.

Attorney Clarence J. Drake of Poughkeepsie has been named inheritance tax appraiser to succeed the late George Wood.

Poughkeepsie Industry Sincere.

The Poughkeepsie Chamber of Commerce has taken over the Myers property in that city as a site for the Victor typewriter plant soon to be erected.

HOBBY SHOW AND MINSTRELS NEXT

The Big Y. M. C. A. Minstrels and Boys' Hobby Show will be given next week on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at the Y. M. C. A., and the event promises to be one of the most interesting to those who enjoy something new and unusual. The minstrels boys have been rehearsing faithfully and a finished performance is promised. The next rehearsal will be held on Friday evening.

So far twenty-seven entries have been received for the hobby show. This is the first time that a show of that kind was ever staged in Kingston. The show will be held in the big gymnasium. Any boy in the city, whether a member of the association or not, can enter his hobby at the show. Those intending to do so should try and file their entry before Saturday night.

One of the special attractions will be the Indian reservation, which will be in charge of "Stub" Glendening, "Scooch" Schoonmaker, L. C. Godfrey, Ray Walter, "Bill" Newkirk and Harold Van Deusen. They will discuss the weather, the tax rate, local affairs and other pertinent topics. The soloists this year will include Floyd Vogt, C. Harold Beckwith and Harry Connolly. The endmen will also sing.

The musical end of the program promises to be exceptionally good. A large chorus of fifty voices will be an attraction.

Several specialties will be introduced during the show by "Gus" Honestel, L. C. Godfrey, Master Walter Honestel and G. Richter Zelliff.

In all in the hobby show and the minstrels will be an event long remembered by those who attend.

Bullet Fired by Charles Guadagnolo Proved Fatal—No Clue to Identity of the Dead Man—Guadagnolo Arraigned.

The unknown hobo who was shot through the head by Charles Guadagnolo in the latter's saloon at Saugerties Monday night, died at the Kingston City Hospital at one o'clock this morning, and his identity remains unknown.

From the time that Guadagnolo shot him through the head, the stranger remained unconscious until he died. A careful examination was made of his clothing for some clue which might lead to his identification, but there was nothing about his person or clothing which would furnish a clue.

This morning a young man, apparently fresh from a tramp trip and possibly a hobo himself, called at the hospital to see the stranger. He did not see the dead man, whose body had been removed to the undertaking establishment of Coroner Ernest A. Kelly, but he said he had met a man who had said he knew the stranger, and that he was a German who hailed from Paterson, N. J. At the hospital, the visitor was advised to go to Coroner Kelly and impart his information to him, and also to view the remains in the possibility that he might actually recognize the dead man, but he did not appear at Coroner Kelly's morgue.

Guadagnolo was taken to Saugerties on the 11:14 o'clock West Shore train for arraignment before Justice of the Peace Chidester. He was accompanied by Andrew J. Cook, whom he retained as his counsel on Tuesday, and City Judge William D. Brinnier, Jr., whom he retained this morning, and at Saugerties he was met by Benjamin Howe, who he had also retained. It was expected by his counsel that he would waive examination. H. LeRoy Lounsbury of the district attorney's office appeared for The People.

An autopsy was performed on the dead stranger this afternoon at Coroner Kelly's morgue by Dr. A. A. Stern of this city and Dr. B. W. Gifford of Saugerties, who was called in immediately after the shooting on who brought the body to the early Tuesday morning.

EVERYBODY INVITED TO THE INSPECTION

Captain Meagher of Company M through the press of the city invites the members of the Old Guard Association of Ulster county and the general public to be present at the annual inspection and muster of Company M, which takes place this evening, at 8 o'clock. The local guard commander will provide seats for the members of the old guard on the drill floor of the armory, so that they can see and review the development of the science of war, as practiced by the National Guard of this state. The vets will see that the present day citizen soldier employs tactics such as they never have witnessed.

The general public will find enough seats in the gallery to accommodate about 400 persons. At former inspections of Company M the attendance of spectators, has always made a favorable impression upon the inspecting officers, who are always ready to comment upon the interest shown by the citizens of Kingston in the National Guard.

One reason for lack of interest in the National Guard is the fact that its organizations are never seen by the general public except on occasions of ceremony, when the real significance and purpose of establishment are obscured by the object of its assembly, and its serious purpose is not revealed.

The inspection of Company M should stimulate interest in the National Guard in this city, a highly desirable thing at this time, and it should be a matter of pride of this city that they have a National Guard Company the equal of any in the state.

EUREKA.

Eureka, Feb. 16.—William Ackery spent from Saturday until Monday with Mahlon Donovan.

Rumor is they have hired a Baptist minister, who will reside in the parsonage, so Walden Van Wagner will have to move March 1.

Arson Furman of Grahamsville called on Sylvester Porter last week. J. M. Hoornbeck's saw mill shut down Friday again.

William Henry Donovan is hunting foxes with Ben Hill's hound.

Mrs. George Dierfelder called on Mrs. Orin Fuller Saturday afternoon.

Charles Sheeley of Grahamsville has been drawing logs for Orin Fuller.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Porter spent Monday in Grahamsville.

Ralph Hoornbeck of Lackawack Hill called at Mahlon Donovan's on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Rance Quick spent one day last week with her daughter, Mrs. G. Quick.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Smith of Sugar Loaf called on Mrs. Smith's parents here Saturday.

TWO ORCHESTRAS AT SHRINERS' BALL

Two orchestras will play this year at the Shriners' ball at the armory on next Wednesday evening as the music committee has engaged Muller's orchestra of twenty pieces, and also Edward Brown's celebrated colored orchestra of New York city. This is the same colored orchestra that made such a hit at the ball last year but instead of six pieces it will be augmented to twelve pieces for this occasion.

A ladies' committee is being arranged and the names will be published later. Tickets for the ball are selling rapidly and undoubtedly a large sum will be realized for the benefit of the Industrial Home. The hall will be artistically decorated for the occasion and the Shriners are sparing no efforts to make it even a bigger success than last year.

THE JOINERS.

News of Interest to Members of Fraternal Societies.

The following lodges hold regular meetings this evening.

Patriotic Order Sons of America, Washington Camp, No. 2, in Mechanics' Hall, Henry Street.

Mr. Horeb Chapter, No. 75, R. A. M., in Masonic Hall, Wall Street.

All brothers of Minneapoka Tribe, No. 130, Improved Order of Red Men, are urged to be present at the meeting tomorrow evening, as there are several important matters to come before the order. Several applications of palefaced, who have already been captured by brothers will be read. These men wish to go in with the class of 25, which will be acted upon. The entertainment committee also has a very important matter to bring up at this time in regard to the big pig roast. The sashem, Leo F. Grogan, has some words of wisdom which will interest each and every brother. There will be our good speaking and boasting for the order.

ON TRAIL OF THE BORERS.

Finley J. Shepard Secures Prof. Green to Save Roxbury Trees.

Discovery by Finley J. Shepard that a maple tree in Kickside Park, Roxbury, was dying from a borer a campaign has been launched there against these pests which have damaged many trees in that vicinity.

Prof. Russell T. Green, well known in Kingston as a member of the faculty of the State College of Forestry, Syracuse University, has been chosen field marshal and will give an illustrated lecture on the borer at the high school in Roxbury on March 8.

Field excursions to the lairs of the borers will be directed by Prof. Green on March 9th, with Mr. Shepard and prominent citizens in the training squad.

An Injured Ankle.

Harry T. Lown of Prospect street, who is employed on a freight train of the Ulster & Delaware railroad, was painfully injured Saturday when a fellow worker, who was helping him carry an oil barrel, slipped, and the barrel fell on Lown's ankle, badly bruising the ligaments. The accident occurred above Phoenixia and the injured man was not given medical aid until five hours after the accident happened, arriving at Kingston at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Dr. Stern dressed the injury and Lown confined to his home, is doing as well as can be expected under the circumstances.

Holy Grail Banquet.

On Tuesday evening, February 22, the Knights of the Holy Grail will hold their annual banquet in the Sunday school room of the Trinity M. E. Church.

The banquet committee has been working hard and all arrangements have been completed. Rev. F. B. Seeley will be the guest of honor. They have secured Mrs. Daley to cater and Swart's orchestra will render selections throughout the evening and a royal good time is assured the Knights and their friends.

WEST PARK.

West Park, Feb. 16.—Daniel McCohenly, son of Charles McCohenly, died at Vassar Hospital, Poughkeepsie on Sunday evening.

He was 13 years of age. Funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in Poughkeepsie. Daniel was a great sufferer for a long time with heart trouble. He at one time attended school in West Park, his father being employed at Frank Seeley's.

Sanctuary Cost Millions.

The contributions of the people, in the time of David, for the sanctuary, exceeded $20,000,000. The immense treasure David is said to have collected for the sanctuary amounted to about $1,445,000,000. The gold which Solomon overlaid the most holy place, a room only thirteen feet square, amounted to $150,000,000.

There is to be a dance at the home of John Krom this Wednesday evening, February 16. All those who were invited to the party at W. S.

Krom's the previous Wednesday are cordially invited to attend the dance

at John Krom's.

Miss Eva Van Wagenen was home

the past week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Schoonmaker

Mrs. Sheeley's niece and daughter,

Elizabeth, are visiting at her home.

The party given at the home of W.

L. Krom the past week was a great success. There were a large number present and every one seemed to enjoy themselves. The rooms were cleared for dancing and the floors

were filled shortly after the arrival of the guests. Dancing continued until the early morning hours. Refreshments were served. During the earlier part of the evening and immediately after partaking of these

the music of the accordion again called the dancers to the floor. The children who were present passed the time playing various games. Mr. and Mrs. Krom, proved to be royal entertainers, and although the party did not break up until late, the hours

seemed all too short.

The men of the High Falls Reformed Church will give a supper in the basement of the church on Thursday evening of this week. These suppers have been given before and are considered of great importance.

Anyone who has once attended one will wish to come again and those who have not already had that pleasure will miss a great thing if they do not come to the supper this Thursday. The first supper will be served at 5:30 o'clock. There is no need to mention the excellency of this meal

as these suppers have too great a reputation. If you attend this one you will be sure to look forward to the next with pleasure. At 9 o'clock

there will be moving pictures. Ice cream and cake will also be served during the evening.

"My New Curate."

The four act drama, "My New Curate," which will be produced in St. Mary's Hall on Monday and Tuesday of next week by members of the parish, promises to be equal to any play put on in the city in some time.

Half a hundred people will participate in the play and a great deal of interest is manifested, the play being taken from a book which has received considerable note. On Sunday afternoon a special matinee for children will be given at 2:30 o'clock.

See the Sahara Reclaimed.

Some day the world will get out of the Sahara all the good it has to offer. Among the desert sands near Biskra, last year, the French had over eight hundred wells giving life and fruitage to 1,500,000 date palms. There is a chance for immense development of the date industry all along the northern edge of the desert south of Morocco, Algeria and Tunis. Frank R.

Cana, a conservative and authoritative writer, says that in time probably a tenth of the Sahara will be reclaimed for human usefulness.

HELPFUL THOUGHTS.

Ink can be removed from any fabric with fresh milk if quickly applied.

Blood spots on woolen may be easily removed by rubbing the spots with dry starch.

This absorbs the blood, and the cloth when dry may be brushed, freeing the starch from the cloth.

Before polishing a stove soap the hands well with a good laundry soap, filling the nails with the soap, then dry and the hands will not be at all stained when the black work is done.

A bar of laundry soap moistened to a lather rubbed over the back of the oilcloth that slips and slides on the table will keep it firm without the use of tacks.

Salt shaker tops which have become rusted on may be removed by soaking the tops in a little vinegar. The acid dissolves the rust and the tops will then unscrew.

Cut hot gingerbread or cake with a fork. This makes each piece light and fluffy, whereas a knife used will spoil the cake, making a heavy streak where it is cut.

Use a little kerosene in the cleaning of windows, adding a teaspoonful to a pail of soapy water. Also use it in cleaning the bathtub, kitchen sink, linoleum, wash basin and the rollers of the clothes wringer.

Newspapers may be used in many ways to lighten work. Cut in small squares and hang from a convenient hook. Use the pieces to rub off the stove, wipe out a greasy dish, or on which to set a smoky kettle. They save utensils in dressing chickens and preparing vegetables, fruits and nuts; they protect the sink drain if used to wipe out greasy dishes before washing. If dampened and torn in bits may be used to keep down dust sweepings. When tightly twisted they make good kindling for fires, and good packing for a homemade fireless cooker.

To keep a kitchen cookstove clean an ordinary school eraser sprinkled with kerosene is a fine improvement over the brush which just changes the position of the dust.

STATE PLATFORM OF REPUBLICAN PARTY

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New York, Feb. 16.—The following platform was presented to the Republican state convention today by the committee on resolutions:

"The Republican party in New York, speaking through its representatives in a convention advisory to the enrolled voters, declares its purpose to conduct, with full confidence of success, a vigorous and constructive campaign on behalf of the great principles of government and of social order for which it has stood from the beginning of its history.

"We pledge ourselves to the support of a patriotic and forward-looking Americanism. The Republican party stands for the American principles of government: for the full rights and privileges of American citizenship; for the defense of America and Americans against attack from any quarter whatsoever; for the welfare of American business and for the protection of American labor; but above all for those enduring principles of national honor, of liberty, of justice and fidelity to national obligations, through adherence to which the nation has grown great. It believes in the truth of Washington's declaration that the name of American which belongs to us in our national capacity, must always exalt the pride of patriotism more than any appellation derived from either local or racial discriminations.

The Common Defence.

"It is the fixed policy of the American people to observe good faith toward all nations and to do justice to them all. We wish to continue on terms of peace and friendship with the whole world and we endorse and support the movement designed to make increasingly difficult and improbable a resort to force in the settlement of international differences. But we assert the right of America to oppose any violation of international agreements to which it is a party, and its duty to insist upon the security and guarantees of the law of nations.

"For defense against attack from without we rely first upon the navy. We urge that it be provided with a general staff and so enlarged in ships, in officers and in men, and so supplied by vessels, auxiliary to the fighting force of such types as experience has shown to be necessary for effectiveness, that it will constitute a well organized, a complete and a certain defense against attack, both on the Atlantic and on the Pacific. We believe that the nation should continue to follow the advice of Washington and avoid 'the necessity of those overgrown military establishments which, under any form of government, are inauspicious to liberty.' But we also believe in the vital principle of democracy, enacted into law, under Washington's administration, that every citizen owes the freeman's duty of defense for his country and of the training necessary to make that defense effective. 'The Republican party stands for the gospel of patriotic service to our country by every citizen according to his ability in peace and in war.' So long as present conditions continue to prevail in other parts of the world, the military establishment of the United States should be substantially strengthened. The regular army should be made adequate to perform its traditional duty of serving as the nation's first line of land defense and of being the nucleus and the source of instruction and administration of the army of citizen soldiers, upon which in the last event the safety of the nation must depend.

"Provision must be made for the effective training of such a citizen army under sole authority of the national government. A sufficient supply of the machines and munitions of war should be ready at hand in case the necessity for their use should ever be forced upon the American people. Experience has shown that in time of war what a nation stints in materials, it squanders in human life. The most famous example is the failure to provide an adequate supply. Less than enough is too little.

"The enlargement of the naval and military establishments should be for purposes of defense alone. We support no policy of foreign conquest or domination or of interference with the independence and internal policies of any other people. Should the nations of the world, on the conclusion of the present war, be ready to join in new and well-secured international policies for the limitation of armaments and for the extension of the rule of law, there should be willing and complete cooperation on our part.

Enforcement of International Law.

"We believe that it is the duty of the American government to bear its part in re-establishing international law and in providing it with sufficient sanctions. If the law of nations is to be binding, and if the decisions of tribunals charged with the application of that law to international controversies are to be respected and enforced, then violations of the law that are of such a character as to threaten the peace of nations must be deemed to be a violation of the right of every civilized nation to have the law maintained, and a legal injury to every nation. In order to bear its proper part in carrying forward this world policy, America must show that while it has no purpose to interfere in controversies between other nations, it will insist upon universal observance of the principles and rules of international law.

Mexico.

"No patriotic citizen will embarrass the government of his country in its dealings with other nations; but it is not possible to regard, without the gravest dissatisfaction and dismay, the result of the policies of the present administration toward Mexico. That policy which has been proclaimed as one of watchful waiting has not in reality been one of action but of uncertainty, inconsistency and irresponsible interference. The Wilson administration destroyed established government in Mexico and now stands on one side while anarchy and chaos reign in that country. It has stood aloof while American men have been killed, American women outraged and American property destroyed. Intervention in the internal affairs of Mexico by the administration has inflicted upon the Mexican people and upon all foreigners resident in Mexico anarchy, bloodshed and suffering almost without modern parallel. We demand that American rights in Mexico shall be protected. This should be done either by a responsible Mexican government or through co-operation with other American republics in such way as shall secure the independence, good order and prosperity of Mexico.

The Philippines.

"We denounce the measure regarding the Philippine Islands that has passed the senate and is now pending in the house of representatives as an abandonment of the duty of this nation and a breach of trust toward the Filipinos. Under the Wilson administration the work begun under President McKinley and continued under the subsequent Republican administrations, in improving the material, intellectual and political welfare of the Filipinos and in building up a civil service in the merit system, goes for naught. The policies advocated by the Democratic party will, if persisted in, almost certainly lead to factional disturbance and inter-tribal war and to the seizure of the islands by some foreign power.

Tariff Commission.

"We demand the restoration of the Republican policy of a tariff commission with ample power to inquire into matters of cost, production and labor conditions in this and other countries, and to supply the congress with the fullest possible and most accurate information for guidance in the formulation of a permanent tariff policy that shall adequately protect American labor as well as conserve and develop American natural resources and American industry. We condemn the destruction by the Democratic party of the non-partisan tariff commission established under the administration of President Taft.

"The Democratic tariff has proved wholly inadequate either to provide revenue for the support of the government or to protect American labor and American industry upon the farm, in the factory, or in the mine. Before the disastrous effects of this tariff were already felt throughout the land. The war has obscured these effects but immediately upon the restoration of peace they will be felt again with redoubled force.

"We favor such legislation and such administrative action as will relieve honestly conducted business from persecution, which rigidly prevents monopoly, special privilege or unfair practices. The same clarity should be given to the law prohibiting combinations and monopolies that characterizes other provisions of commercial law in order that no part of the field of business opportunity may be restricted, that business success honorably achieved may not be suddenly converted into crime, and that the right of every man to acquire commodities in an open market may be preserved.

"We insist that government regulation of business be not interpreted to mean government management of business.

"We advocate measures: '1.—For the quick upbuilding of an American merchant marine, the maintenance of a strong and independent and without the economic waste and the international embarrassments of government ownership, direct or indirect.

'2.—For the encouragement and development of co-operation among farmers in order that they may secure better and steadier markets for their products, as well as more favorable terms of credit for the improvement of their farms and the development of agriculture; and

'3.—For the amendment of the Federal reserve law so as to increase its public benefits and remove all danger of possible inflation of the currency.

"In support of these principles and policies the Republicans of New York pledge themselves to the Republican party of the nation to join with them to the end that there may be a new birth of American patriotism and that a new pride and strength may be given to American citizenship.

"The foreign platform related to national affairs exclusively. That referring to Governor Whitman's administration, adopted by the resolutions committee after a long fight, was as follows:

"On January 1, 1915, after four years of chaos, disorder and extravagance the Republican party was returned to power in the state of New York. Order and efficiency have been restored, constructive legislation has been enacted, and our state government has been placed in a position where the orderly progress of government is possible once more. We commend Governor Whitman, the legislature and the entire Republican administration. We commend the governor particularly for the courage with which he has faced the financial necessities of the state, and for his efforts to reform our fiscal system so as to insure economy and adequate public knowledge and discussion of the state's business."

All the Differences.

"It is a small thing to a man whether or not his neighbor be merciful to him; it is life or death to him whether or not he be merciful to his neighbor.—George MacDonald.

DEMONSTRATION SCHOOL AT ACCORD

State College of Agriculture and Ulster County Farm Bureau to Co-operate in Farm Demonstration School Next Week.

A farm demonstration school, under the direction of the New York state college of agriculture in co-operation with the farm bureau of Ulster county, will be held at Accord in the Methodist Church from February 21 to 25, inclusive. There will be a regular program each day from 9 o'clock in the morning to 4 in the afternoon. A registration fee of $1 to help defray the expenses of the school will be required.

The subjects taken up at this school will be poultry and animal husbandry. Professor L. M. Hurd of the department of poultry husbandry of the college, will have charge of the poultry course. A study of the laying hen will be made, and live specimens will be used to illustrate the external characteristics that indicate egg-laying abilities. The important factors to be considered in buying and laying out a poultry farm will be taken up. The best methods of killing and packing will be demonstrated, and marketing problems will be discussed.

Professor C. H. Royce, of the animal husbandry department, will adapt his instructions, as far as possible to local problems. Lessons will be given on livestock production, composition of feeds and their selection, systems of breeding, feeding standards, practice in compounding rations, common cattle, ailments, rational stable management, community breeding enterprises, and local livestock problems.

W. H. Hook, farm bureau manager of Ulster county, will address the school on Monday, February 21, and Friday, February 25. He will give special attention to plans for follow-up work.

A special feature of the week's program will be an address on Wednesday evening at 7:30 by H. E. Babcock, assistant director of farm bureaus, of the college of agriculture. His subject will be co-operation for the promotion of agriculture in Ulster county.

The complete program follows:

Monday, February 21.

9-10 a. m.—Outlining the work of the school, C. H. Royce.
10-11 a. m.—Incubation, L. M. Hurd.

SAUGERTIES.

Saugerties, Feb. 16.—Charles Stanley of Jane street is substituting as mail carrier in place of Richard Powers, the regular carrier.

Clayton Maxwell of Jane street is ill with the measles.

Mrs. Travis of Market street has returned from a visit with her parents in Dornansville, N. Y.

The Odd Fellows' ball was held at the Orpheum last evening and was largely attended. Martin's orchestra of six pieces rendered the music.

Walsh & Bennett began harvesting ice in the lower creek on Tuesday. The ice is of good quality, measuring 10 inches.

Charles Borsert of New York city spent Sunday in town.

Miss Minnie Bruckner has returned to New York city after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Rudolph Dierling, on Market street.

Special Officer George Dumond of Kingston was in town Tuesday. The remains of Patrick Powers, who died in Brooklyn, were brought to Saugerties, this afternoon and taken to the home of his sister, Mrs. John O'Neil, at West Bridge street. Funeral will be held Thursday morning at St. Mary's Church. Interment will be in St. Mary's Cemetery.

is Brace and Mayne's "Farm Shop Work," published by the American Book Company. The book teaches the boy how to make various articles of use on the farm and supplies a course for rural and elementary schools. The exercises provide instruction and training along four lines of practical work, woodworking, blacksmithing, concrete work and harness mending. The woodworking department gives instructions for making various articles which all boys enjoy making while the blacksmithing department covers the making of a number of novelties and useful articles which are used by the farmer. In the concrete department articles on sidewalk laying, fence posts and mold making give a practical idea of this work. The harness repairing department deals with this important branch of a farmer's duty and describes the use of the tools required and their care.

Raised the Temperature.
"What's the temperature in this room?" growled Mr. Blower, after fidgeting for several minutes. "It was only 70 degrees when you began to fret and fume," answered Mrs. Blower, without looking at the thermometer. "But I dare say it's much higher now."

Not for Mother.
"No, mother, this novel is not at all fit for you to read." "You are reading it," "Yes, but you know you were brought up very differently,"—Boston Transcript.

Optimistic Thought.
The impossible becomes possible when courage spurs us on.

Regarding the Teeth.
The teeth serve varied purposes. The four front teeth, or incisors, are chisel-shaped in order that they may cut or bite. This shape is also helpful in enunciation. The "eye" teeth, behind the incisors, are better fitted for heavier cutting or biting than the front ones. They are a transition form between the incisors and the larger teeth, which stand next and which break the food into small bits before it is ground and pulverized by the solid back teeth.

Remarkable East Indian Tree.
A tree remarkable for its long taproot, sometimes measuring 84 feet and descending to a vertical depth of 64 feet, has been brought to notice by B. O. Coventry. It is the land tree, which forms small forests on the arid alluvial plains of the Punjab, where the rainfall is ten inches or less, and the taproot is supposed to have developed gradually as the ground-water level was lowered by the lowering of the rivers through erosion of their beds.

Desert by No Means All Sand.
The French, who have been the greatest explorers of the Sahara desert, have corrected many false ideas about the desert. The most conspicuous and persistent of these errors has been the notion that the desert is a vast area of sand. The French have proved that this is not so. In fact, only about a fifth of the Sahara is covered with sand.

Getting a Start.

He had just taken his first cold bath. "Now," said he to himself, "I must go downtown and brag about the cold bath I take every morning."

Not Really Ancient.
The claim is made that a Maya inscription in Yucatan fixes the date of a building in that region at 200 years B. C. How accurate this claim is, only experts can tell, and probably they will wrangle about it for half a generation before deciding. If established, it will be the oldest date in the history of the western continent—but how modern compared to the records of the lands by the Euphrates and the Nile!

Why Shafts Are Hollow.
By careful experiments it has been proved that a solid column subject to bending strains is no stronger than a hollow one. Consequently all iron shafts which drive the screws of steamships have a hole bored down the center so that weight may be reduced.

OFFICE 'PHONE 66

KINGSTON, N. Y.

HIGH FALLS.

High Falls, Feb. 15.—Miss Ruth Barnhart was in town on Monday.

Mrs. Richard Purvis, who has been spending some time in Kingston, returned home the last of the week.

Mrs. Festus Yeaple and Mrs. Preston Church called at the home of Mrs. Stevens on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. George Holmes and Miss Cynthia Van Wageningen called at the home of Mrs. Martha Sheeley on Thursday afternoon.

The Pine Mountain League will meet the coming Saturday, February 19, at the home of Miss Cynthia Van Wageningen.

There is to be a dance at the home of John Krom this Wednesday evening, February 16. All those who were invited to the party at W. S. Krom's the previous Wednesday are cordially invited to attend the dance at John Krom's.

Miss Eva Van Wageningen was home the past week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Schoonmaker of Accord attended the house party at the home of her brother, W. L. Krom, the past Wednesday evening.

Miss Alta Brodhead has been visiting at the home of Mrs. John Right of Poughkeepsie.

Mrs. Sheeley's niece and daughter, Elizabeth, are visiting at her home.

The party given at the home of W. L. Krom the past week was a great success. There were a large number of guests and every one seemed to enjoy themselves. The rooms were cleared for dancing and the floors were filled shortly after the arrival of the guests. Dancing continued until the early morning hours. Refreshments were served. During the earlier part of the evening and immediately after partaking of these the music of the accordion again called the dancers to the floor. The children who were present passed the time playing various games. Mr. and Mrs. Krom and daughter, Miss Isabelle Krom, proved to be royal entertainers, and although the party did not break up until late, the hours seemed all too short.

The men of the High Falls Reformed Church will give a supper in the basement of the church on Thursday evening of this week. These suppers have been given before and are considered of great importance. Anyone who has once attended one will wish to come again and those who have not already had that pleasure will miss a great thing if they do not come to the supper this Thursday.

The first supper will be served at 5:30 o'clock. There is no need to mention the excellency of this meal as these suppers have to great a reputation. If you attend this one you will be sure to look forward to the next with pleasure. At 9 o'clock there will be moving pictures. Ice cream and cake will also be served during the evening.

"My New Curate."

The four act drama, "My New Curate," which will be produced in St. Mary's Hall on Monday and Tuesday of next week by members of the parish, promises to be equal to any play put on in the city in some time. Half a hundred people will participate in the play and a great deal of interest is manifested, the play being taken from a book which has received considerable note. On Sunday afternoon a special matinee for children will be given at 2:30 o'clock.

Sees the Sahara Reclaimed.

Some day the world will get out of the Sahara all the good it has to offer. Among the desert sands near Biskra, last year, the French had over eight hundred wells giving life and fruitage to 1,500,000 date palms. There is a chance for immense development of the date industry all along the northern edge of the desert south of Morocco, Algeria and Tunis. Frank R. Cane, a conservative and authoritative writer, says that in time probably a tenth of the Sahara will be reclaimed for human usefulness.

HELPFUL THOUGHTS.

Ink can be removed from any fabric with fresh milk if quickly applied.

Blood spots on woolen may be easily removed by rubbing the spots with dry starch. This absorbs the blood, and the cloth when dry may be brushed, freeing the starch from the cloth.

Before polishing a stove soap the hands well with a good laundry soap, filling the nails with the soap, then dry and the hands will not be at all stained when the black work is done.

A bar of laundry soap moistened to a lather rubbed over the back of the oilcloth that slips and slides on the table will keep it firm without the use of tacks.

Salt shaker tops which have become rusted on may be removed by soaking the tops in a little vinegar. The acid dissolves the rust and the tops will then unscrew.

Cut hot gingerbread or cake with a fork. This makes each piece light and fluffy, whereas a knife used will spoil the cake, making a heavy streak where it is cut.

Use a little kerosene in the cleaning of windows, adding a teaspoonful to a pail of soapy water. Also use it in cleaning the bathtub, kitchen sink, linoleum, wash basin and the rollers of the clothes wringer.

Newspapers may be used in many ways to lighten work. Cut in small squares and hang from a convenient hook. Use the pieces to rub off the stove, wipe out a greasy dish, or on which to set a smoky kettle. They save utensils in dressing chickens and preparing vegetables, fruits and nuts; they protect the sink drain if used to wipe out greasy dishes before washing. If dampened and torn in bits may be used to keep down dust sweepings. When tightly twisted they make good kindling for fires, and good packing for a homemade fireless cooker.

To keep a kitchen cookstove clean an ordinary school eraser sprinkled with kerosene is a fine improvement over the brush which just changes the position of the dust.

THE BIG ISSUES OF 1916.

It is the general opinion of Americans that Elihu Root is the wisest and most far-seeing statesman we have in the United States today, and more than ordinary importance attaches to his ringing speech to the unofficial Republican Convention of New York State in Carnegie Hall Tuesday night. In it the great Senator outlined the issues upon which the approaching National campaign is to be fought, and it is the business of patriotic voters to consider thoughtfully his utterances.

The shameful foreign policy to which President Wilson is wedded was scathingly denounced by Mr. Root. "No man," he said, "should draw a pistol who dares not shoot. The Government which shakes its fist first and its finger afterwards falls into contempt. Our diplomacy has lost its authority and influence because we have been brave in words and irresolute in action." When Wilson entered office 40,000 Americans were living in Mexico, where they had invested a thousand millions of dollars. Factional warfare had broken out in that turbulent country, and "the lives and property of all Americans in Mexico were in danger." It was the first duty of the President, as Mr. Root says, to secure protection for these lives and property, and his second duty to refrain from dominating interference with Mexican internal affairs "except as he was justified by the law of nations." Wilson failed to perform either of these duties. Although "Huerta's was the only power in Mexico to which appeal could be made for protection of life or property," and although it was "only within the territory where Huerta ruled that comparative peace and order prevailed," Wilson demanded that Huerta resign, and withheld munitions of war from him, while supplying them freely to his adversaries. In short, "The Government of the United States ignored, condoned, the murder of American men and the rape of American women and destruction of American property and insult to American officers and defiance of the American flag, and joined itself to the men who were guilty of all these things, to pull down the power of Huerta." While doing nothing to protect our citizens, an armed force was sent to Vera Cruz to "determine the Mexican Presidential succession." As Mr. Root said:

With the occupation of Vera Cruz the moral power of the United States in Mexico ended. We were then and we are now hated for what we did to Mexico, and we were then and we are now despised for our feeble and irresolute failure to protect the lives and rights of our citizens. No flag is so dishonored and no citizenship so little worth the claiming in Mexico as ours. And that is why we have failed in Mexico.

Equally revolting to high-minded men was the cowardly attitude of the United States when Belgium was invaded. It is preposterous to claim that it was none of our business. Mr. Root said:

There come times in the lives of nations as of men when to treat wrong as if it were right is treason to the right.

The American people were entitled not merely to feel but to speak concerning the wrong done to Belgium. It was not like interference in the internal affairs of Mexico or any other nation, for this was an international wrong. The law protecting Belgium which was violated was our law, and the law of every other civilized country. For generations we had been urging on Belgium, helping in its development and establishment. It was not necessary that the United States should go to war in defense of the violated law. A single official expression by the Government of the United States, a single sentence denying assent and recording disapproval of what Germany did in Belgium would have given to the people of America that leadership which they were entitled in their earnest groping for the light.

It would have ranged behind American leadership the conscience and morality of the neutral world. It would have brought to American diplomacy the respect and strength of loyalty to a great cause. But it was not to be. The American Government failed to rise to the demands of the great occasion. Gone were the old love of justice; the old passion for liberty; the old sympathy with the oppressed; the old ideals of an American helping the world toward a better future; and there remained in the eyes of mankind only solicitude for trade and profit and prosperity and wealth.

Neither Senator Root, nor the Republican party, for which he speaks, desires war. A mainly foreign policy is the best insurance against war. As Mr. Root said:

Such policies as I have described are doubly dangerous in their effect upon foreign nations and in their effect at home. It is a matter of universal experience that a weak and apprehensive treatment of foreign affairs invites encroachment upon rights and leads to situations in which it is difficult to prevent war, while a firm and frank policy at the outset prevents difficult situations from arising and tends most strongly to preserve peace.

Another insurance against war is preparedness for trouble, and Mr. Root indicts the Wilson administration "for lack of foresight to make timely provision for backing up American diplomacy by actual or assumed military and naval force." He pointed out the indisputable fact that "ordinary practical sense in the conduct of affairs demanded that such steps should be taken," yet when the advocates of preparedness gave voice to their opinions, "their arguments and urgency were ascribed to political motives, and the President described them, with a sneer, as being nervous and excited."

But it is not only upon the issue whether the United States shall continue to stand a lame-faced among the nations that the Republican party appeals to the voters. The fictitious prosperity in some industries, due to the war, cannot blind thoughtful people to the tremendous injury which the Democratic administration has inflicted upon our business interests. To understand this we must consider what happened before the war broke out, and what will happen afterward unless our National policy is changed. Mr. Root said:

During the year and a half of Democratic control of Government in a period of profound peace there had been a steady decrease in American production, in exports and in revenues, and a steady increase in imports and expenditures. Enterprise had halted. New undertakings no longer made their appearance. Established business ceased to increase its facilities or enlarge its field of action. The great productive industries of the country, the farmer, the miner, the lumberman, the manufacturer, were laboring under a misfit tariff devised by the Democratic party in a spirit of suspicion, distrust, and hostility toward American business enterprise, and with the disturbance of these great basic industries, transportation and commerce had become dull and despondent.

All profitable enterprise was under suspicion. Government had no sympathy with it, no desire to promote it, no sense of responsibility to protect it. There was a nervous dread lest somebody should make money. Envy of business success and the phrases of the demagogue were potent elements in the framing of legislation and the administration of the laws.

It was with just cause that the enterprise of the country halted, timid and irresolute, because it felt and feared the hostility of government. The great war has not changed the lesson which we had already learned when it began. It has but obscured further demonstration.

"But," asked Mr. Root, "what are the people to expect if the Republican party is restored to power?" His answer is that they may expect "a policy of moderate but adequate protection to American industry," that "the Government will be administered with the honesty and efficiency which have marked Republican administrations in the past," that there will be adopted "a foreign policy which, with courtesy and friendliness to all nations, is frank and fearless and honest in its assertion of American rights," and that their Government "will stand for full and adequate preparation by the American people for their own defense." These are the outlines of the leading planks in the next Republican platform, and we have all confidence that these principles will attract the support of a vast majority of our voters.

THIS PREPAREDNESS POPULAR.

Hudson River Items in Rivers and Harbors Bill.

Details of the annual Rivers and Harbors appropriation bill, carrying items aggregating $40,000,000, have been reported to the house. The $700,000 urged by the president to deepen the channel between upper New York Bay to the Brooklyn navy yard may be added.

New York items in the bill follow: New York harbor, including Ambrose Channel, $40,000; Hudson river channel, $450,000; Harlem and Bronx rivers, $250,000 each; Staten Island (New York and New Jersey), $500,000; Port Chester, $27,500; Gowanus Bay, Red Hook channel, $150,000; Buffalo harbor, $140,000; Oswego harbor, $100,000; Hudson river, $640,000, together with authorization for $610,000 more in contracts to be paid from subsequent appropriations.

The only extra feature is an item for the survey of the whole river to ascertain the probable cost of deepening the channel to 25 feet from the Highlands to Albany, and also giving Rondout and Hudson deeper river fronts.

The bar of sand opposite Haverstraw is to be dredged as a part of the deepening of the whole channel.

Cut Tendon With a Skate.

David G. LeNoir, a South Carolina student at Poughkeepsie college, cut a tendon and artery in his foot during his first venture on skates six weeks ago. The tendon was spliced and LeNoir has just been discharged from a hospital.

Game and Dance Tonight.

There will be a basketball game at the Holy Cross parish house tonight—Peerless vs. Holy Cross. The contest will commence early in order to have plenty of time for dancing.

LITTLE LAUGHS.

"I must be getting old." "What makes you think so?" "I seem to have lost all desire to wear white flannel trousers on Sundays and holidays."—Detroit Free Press.

"Those two women fell out about nothing." "Are you sure?" "Yes. They quarrelled over their social standing, and neither one has any."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Hobson—"My wife never wastes anything." Dobson—"No?" Hobson—"No. If it's edible, it goes into the hash; and if it isn't, it will do to trim a hat."—Judge.

She (at the concert)—"What did you think of that last singer?" He—"Well, she's courageous, anyway. The submarine scare didn't keep her away from the high C's"—Boston Transcript.

New Man on the Road—"What is the best time for me to see the head of this firm I'm working for, boy?" Office Boy—"Between the time he gets your sales account and the time he gets your expense account."—Puck.

"Mrs. Fluddub seems devoted to her husband." "Yes, she's a queer woman. Says she is perfectly satisfied to look after her home, as she does not think she could make a success on the stage."—Louisville Courier Journal.

"I believe," said the impatient man, as he put aside the telephone, "that I'll go fishing." "Didn't know you cared for fishing." "I don't ordinarily. But it's the only chance I have of a line that isn't busy."—Washington Star.

The Reward.

Pierre Rogdestvensky, Russian consul to San Francisco, was talking about Bulgaria's apostasy.

"But she'll get little gratitude and little reward from Germany," he said. "She'll find herself, at the end, in the position of the young man at the glove counter."

"Give me a pair of four-button white kids, No. 6, please," said a young lady to this clerk. "Why," she added, with a start, haven't I seen you before?"

"Oh, Mabel!" cried the clerk, "you haven't forgotten me, then, after all! Don't you remember how I saved your life in the surf last summer, and we became engaged and—"

"Why, yes, to be sure," said the young lady, brightly. "And—er—you can make it two pairs of four-button kids, if you like."—San Francisco Examiner.

How Young She Looks!

Little Willie became slightly indisposed, and when the family doctor was called he prescribed some medicine in powder form.

"Come, Willie," said the fond mother, preparing one of the powders as soon as the medicine arrived from the drug store, "you must take this right away so that you will be well."

"No, I don't want to take it," whined Willie, backing away from the dose. "I don't need no medicine."

"Why, Willie," pleaded mother, gently, drawing the boy toward her, "you never heard me complain about a little powder did you?"

"No, and neither would I," was the startling rejoinder of Willie, "if I could put it on my face like you do, but I have to swallow it."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Getting Posted.

One of the freshmen at Yale immediately applied to the proper officer of the university upon the day of his entrance into that institution for information touching his father's stay there before him.

"I should like to see my father's record," said he. "He was in the class of '75."

"I shall be glad to show you the record," said the officer, "but have you any special reason for consulting it?"

"Well," said the youth, "when I left home dad told me not to disgrace him, and I wish to see just how far I can go."—Boston Post.

His Good Idea.

The serious-looking man was trying hard to listen to the speaker's eloquence, but the squalling of an infant in the row of seats directly ahead gave him little opportunity. Annoyance gave way to irritation, and irritation was in turn superseded by resolve. He leaned forward, touched the mother on the shoulder, and in a dispassionate tone asked:

"Has your baby been christened yet?"

"Why, no, sir. Why do you ask?" "Merely because I was about to suggest that if he had not been christened you might name him Good Idea."

MATTERS BEFORE THE SURROGATE

A hearing was had in the surrogate's court on Tuesday in the matter of the judicial settlement of the account of Marcella Jordan, as executrix of the estate of Thomas Jordan of this city, and a decree passing and approving the account was granted. Christopher A. Murray appeared for the executrix.

A hearing was had in the matter of the judicial settlement of the account of Simon Vernoy, as executrix of the estate of Harriette Newell of the town of Shawangunk, and a decree was granted. A. S. Embler of Walden appeared for the executrix.

In the estate of Alfred Connelly, formerly of this city, an order was granted declaring the estate exempt from tax under the taxable transfer act. Arthur C. Connelly appeared for Jennie Spencer, the administratrix. Similar orders were granted in the estates of Lydia M. Thorp, of which Harry K. Abell is administrator, and Cornelia Krom, of which Ernest A. Kelly is administrator. Arthur C. Connelly appeared in each matter for the administratrix. A similar order was granted in the estate of Sophia Hiltebrandt, of which Frederick A. and Frank P. Hiltebrandt are executors. Brininger & Canfield appearing for the executors. Joseph H. Vandervlyn appeared for the state comptroller in each proceeding.

ELLENVILLE.

Ellenville, Feb. 16.—The famous African explorer and hunter, F. A. Clark, gave a very interesting illustrated lecture in the high school auditorium on Saturday evening, February 12. Mr. Clark accompanied Theodore Roosevelt on his famous expedition to Africa, in 1912, and many rare and interesting pictures, taken at that time, were shown on Saturday evening. Mr. Clark is not a professional lecturer and could not be secured at any price as a public speaker, but consented to speak under the auspices of the men's class of the Reformed Church, through the courtesy of Frank Seamon (proprietor of Yama Farms), at whose home he was a guest.

We are informed that Yama Farms Inn was filled to overflowing with guests over Lincoln's birthday and the week end. This famous resort has been very popular this winter as a place of rest and recreation. One of the finest moving pictures of the season was entitled "Winter Sports at Yama Farms, Napanoch, N. Y."

Jansen Hornbeck and Herbert Wood of New York, also Fred Carver of Columbia College spent the holiday and Sunday with their parents in this village.

Mrs. H. B. Raymond is quite seriously ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Terwilliger, on Center street. Dr. Wilkison is in attendance. Mr. Raymond came up from New York on Friday and spent the week end with his family, returning on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Maurice Deponai is reported critically ill from pneumonia. She is under the care of Dr. B. F. Neal, but owing to her advanced age her condition is considered serious.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Howard Hornbeck will remove on April 1st from their present location on Canal street to the Vernon residence on North Main street.

Alex. Terwilliger, who has been spending a week with relatives and friends in Middletown, returned home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ryan returned on Friday evening from a short trip to Searsville, Orange county, where they had gone on Thursday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Ryan's uncle, L. M. Hultslander.

Ed. J. Bailey, Jr., has sold his business and stock of china crockery, glassware and household furnishings to Rose & Douglas, hardware merchants, of this place.

The Ellenville high school basketball team went to Port Jervis last Friday evening and played a fast game with the Port Jervis H. S. of that city, resulting in a victory for Ellenville. Score 25 to 18.

On Friday evening, February 25, the Kingston high school team will play a game with the Ellenville boys at Norbury Hall, in this village. The boys say they will make a great effort to win back the laurels they lost at Kingston when they played last in that city.

LEIBHARDT.

Leibhardt, Feb. 16.—Mrs. Arthur Davis of Whitfield is enjoying a week's visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Eliza C. DeWitt.

Mrs. Albert Lounsbury, Mrs. L. E. Lawrence and Mrs. Alex. Brown were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. William Hornbeck last Thursday. A very pleasant visit Thursday by all the ladies.

Mrs. William Hornbeck of Whitfield was called to this place on Monday by the sudden death of her father, Chancellor Quick.

Miss Georgia Hornbeck entertained two lady friends from Kingston over Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Gray and Mrs. Christina Gray were guests of Mrs. Pernia Hornbeck on Wednesday week.

Miss Louella Brown spent Sunday afternoon and evening with Mrs. L. E. Lawrence.

John Mertine of Tabasco was in this place Tuesday breaking a fine pair of matched steers.

Emily Quick has returned home after spending a week with Mrs. Simon Miller.

Mrs. Elmer Lyons and three sons of Middletown have returned home

AMERICAN & IDEAL RADIATORS & BOILERS

These outfits are so simple to run, and so thoroughly rid the house of ash-dust (giving long life to furniture and decorations) that house-cleaning is reduced one-half. IDEAL Boilers are the only heaters so made that all the coal-gases and soot are kept inside the boiler—burned there—thus protecting the family health. No other heating apparatus in any way competes with IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators, hence their rapid and wide use in cottages and all larger buildings—more than a million installations at home and abroad.

Get the heat that costs the least

Insist on IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators. In so important a matter you can not afford to run any risks, especially when IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators are so fully guaranteed and cost no more than inferior makes. They need no water works supply or mains, as same water is used over and over again for years.

Don't discount your new building or let your present building get behind the times by neglecting longer to ask the nearest dealer for an estimate. Present attractive prices will surprise you.

The IDEAL Boiler is put in cellar or side-room and will burn any local fuel—wood, oil, gas, lignite, hard or soft coal (even cheap grades of pea coal, slack, run-of-mine, screenings, etc.)

Our catalog "Ideal Heating" (free) is a volume of concise heating and ventilating information which every owner or tenant—small or large—in town or country—ought to have. Write us today. All inquiries cordially welcomed. No obligation to buy.

A No. 2-22-W IDEAL Boiler and 461 ft. of 38-in. AMERICAN Radiators, costing the owner $215, were used to heat this cottage. At this price the goods can be bought of any reputable, competent fitter. This did not include cost of labor, pipe, valves, freight, etc., which vary according to climatic and other conditions.

ARCO WAND Vacuum Cleaner—a genuine, practical Cleaner—$150

We also make the ARCO WAND Vacuum Cleaner, connected by iron suction pipe to various floors of houses, flats, schools, churches, hotels, etc. Through a light-weight hose ALL the dirt, cobwebs, lint, threads, moths, etc., are drawn with lightning rapidity down the iron piping into big, sealed dust-bucket in cellar. No dragging around a clumsy, inefficient portable cleaner—instead you have a practical outfit that is a part of the building—like radiator heating. Ask for catalog (free).

No exclusive agents.

Painless Extractions

During the year 1915 the Cady Dental Offices in Poughkeepsie, Kingston, Newburgh and Middletown performed over ten thousand extractions. These operations were painless. Local Anaesthetics were used in the majority of cases but nitrous-oxide gas in a few. This wonderful record should make a deep impression on those who have teeth which require extraction and desire to have the operation done painlessly.

STATE PLATFORM OF REPUBLICAN PARTY

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, Feb. 16.—The following platform was presented to the Republican state convention today by the committee on resolutions:

"The Republican party in New York, speaking through its representatives in a convention advisory to the enrolled voters, declares its purpose to conduct, with full confidence of success, a vigorous and constructive campaign on behalf of the great principles of government and of social order for which it has stood from the beginning of its history.

"We pledge ourselves to the support of a patriotic and forward-looking Americanism. The Republican party stands for the American principles of government; for the full rights and privileges of American citizenship; for the defense of America against attack from any quarter whatsoever; for the welfare of American business and for the protection of American labor; but above all for those enduring principles of national honor, of liberty, of justice and fidelity to national obligations, through adherence to which the nation has grown great. It believes in the truth of Washington's declaration that the name of American which belongs to us in our national capacity, must always exalt the just pride of patriotism more than any appellation derived from either local or racial discriminations.

The Common Defense.

"It is the fixed policy of the American people to observe good faith toward all nations and to do justice to them all. We wish to continue on terms of peace and friendship with the whole world and we endorse and support the movement designed to make increasingly difficult and improbable a resort to force in the settlement of international differences. But we assert the right of America to oppose any violation of international agreements to which it is a party, and its duty to insist upon the security and guarantees of the law of nations.

"For defense against attack from without we rely first upon the navy. We urge that it be provided with a general staff and so enlarged in ships, in officers and in men, and so supplemented by vessels auxiliary to the fighting force of such types as experience has shown to be necessary for effectiveness, that it will constitute a wall of defense against attack, both on the Atlantic and on the Pacific. We believe that the nation should continue to follow the advice of Washington and avoid 'the necessity of those overgrown military establishments which, under any form of government, are inauspicious to liberty; but we also believe in the vital principle of democracy, enacted into law under Washington's administration, that every citizen owes the freeman's duty of defense for his country and of the training necessary to make that defense effective. The Republican party stands for the gospel of service to our country by every citizen according to his ability in peace and in war. So long as present conditions continue to prevail in other parts of the world, the military establishments of the United States should be substantially strengthened. The regular army should be made adequate to perform its traditional duty of serving as the nation's first line of land defense and of being the nucleus and the source of instruction and administration of the army of citizen soldiers, upon which in the last event the safety of the nation must depend.

"Provision should be made for the effective training of such a citizen soldiery under sole authority of the national government. A sufficient supply of the machines and munitions of war should be ready at hand to raise the necessity for their use should ever be forced upon the American people. Experience has shown that in time of war what a nation stunts in materials, it squanders in human life. The most famous extravagance is to provide an inadequate supply. Less than enough is enough.

"The enlargement of the naval and military establishments should be for purposes of defense alone. We support no policy of foreign conquest or domination or of interference with the independence and internal policies of any other people. Should the nations of the world, on the conclusion of the present war, be ready to join in new and well-secured international policies for the limitation of armaments and for the extension of the rule of law, there should be willing and complete cooperation on our part.

"We believe that it is the duty of the American government to bear its part in re-establishing international law and in providing it with efficient sanctions. If the law of nations is to be binding, and if the decisions of tribunals charged with the application of that law to international controversies are to be respected and enforced, then violations of the law that are of such a character as to threaten the peace of nations, must be deemed to be a violation of the right of every civilized nation to have the law maintained, and a legal injury to every nation. It is our duty to bear its proper part in carrying forward this world policy. We cannot show that while it is no purpose to interfere in controversies between other nations, it is no purpose to observe the principles of the principles and rules of international law.

"No patriotic citizen will embarrass the government of his country in its dealings with other nations; but it is not possible to regard, without the gravest dissatisfaction and dismay, the result of the policies of the present administration toward Mexico. That policy which has been proclaimed as one of watchful waiting has not in reality been one of action but uncertain, inconsistent and irresponsible interference. The Wilson administration destroyed established government in Mexico and now stands on one side while anarchy and chaos reign in that country. It has stood aloof while American men have been killed, American women outraged and American property destroyed. Intervention in the internal affairs of Mexico by the administration has inflicted upon the Mexican people and upon all foreigners resident in Mexico anarchy, bloodshed and suffering almost without modern parallel. We demand that American rights in Mexico shall be protected. This should be done either by a responsible Mexican government or through co-operation with other American republics in such way as shall secure the independence, good order and prosperity of Mexico.

The Philippines.

"We denounce the measure regarding the Philippine Islands that has passed the senate and is now pending in the house of representatives as an abandonment of the duty of this nation and a breach of trust toward the Philippines. Under the Wilson administration the work begun under President McKinley and continued under the subsequent Republican administrations, in improving the material, intellectual and political welfare of the Filipinos and in building up a civil service in the merit system, goes for naught. The policies advocated by the Democratic party will, if persisted in, almost certainly lead to factional disturbance and inter-tribal war and to the seizure of the islands by some foreign power.

Tariff Commission.

"We demand the restoration of the Republican policy of a tariff commission with ample power to inquire into matters of cost, production and labor conditions in this and other countries, and to supply the congress with the fullest possible and most accurate information for guidance in the formulation of a permanent tariff policy that shall adequately protect American labor as well as conserve and develop American natural resources and American industry. We condemn the destruction by the Democratic party of the non-partisan tariff commission established under the administration of President Taft.

"The Democratic tariff has proved wholly inadequate either to provide revenue for the support of the government or to protect American labor and American industry upon the farm, in the factory or in the mine. Before the outbreak of the European war the disastrous effects of this tariff were already felt throughout the land. The war has obscured these effects but immediately upon the restoration of peace they will be felt again with redoubled force.

"We favor such legislation and such administrative action as will relieve honestly conducted business from persecution, while rigidly preventing monopoly, special privilege or unfair practices. The same clarity should be given to the law prohibiting combinations and monopolies that characterizes other provisions of commercial law in order that no part of the field of business opportunity may be restricted. That business success honorably achieved may not be suddenly converted into crime, and that the right of every man to acquire commodities in an open market may be preserved.

"We insist that government regulation of business be not interpreted to mean government management of business.

"We advocate measures:

- "1.—For the quick upbuilding of an American merchant marine by the methods that have given us industrial independence and without the economic waste and the international embarrassments of government ownership, direct or indirect.

- "2.—For the encouragement and development of co-operation among farmers in order that they may secure better and steadier markets for their products, as well as more favorable terms of credit for the improvement of their farms and the development of agriculture; and

- "3.—For the amendment of the Federal reserve law so as to increase its public benefits and remove all danger of possible inflation of the currency.

"In support of these principles and policies the Republicans of New York pledge themselves to the Republicans of the nation, to join with them to the end that there may be a new birth of American patriotism and that a new pride and strength may be given to American citizenship."

"The foreign platform related to national affairs exclusively. That referring to Governor Whitman's administration, adopted by the resolutions committee after a long fight, was as follows:

"On January 1, 1915, after four years of chaos, disorder and extravagance the Republican party was returned to power in the state of New York. Order and efficiency have been restored, constructive legislation has been enacted, and our state government has been placed in a position where the orderly progress of government is possible once more. We commend Governor Whitman, the legislature and the entire Republican administration. We commend the governor particularly for the courage with which he has faced the financial necessities of the state, and for his efforts to reform our fiscal system so as to insure economy and adequate public knowledge and discussion of the state's business."

All the Differences.

"It is a small thing to a man who or not his neighbor be merciful to him; it is life or death to him whether or not he be merciful to his neighbor."
—George MacDonald.

DEMONSTRATION SCHOOL AT ACCORD

State College of Agriculture and Ulster County Farm Bureau to Co-operate in Farm Demonstration School Next Week.

A farm demonstration school, under the direction of the New York state college of agriculture in co-operation with the farm bureau of Ulster county, will be held at Accord in the Methodist Church from February 21 to 25, inclusive. There will be a regular program each day from 9 o'clock in the morning to 4 in the afternoon. A registration fee of $1 to help defray the expenses of the school will be required.

The subjects taken up at this school will be poultry and animal husbandry. Professor L. M. Hurd of the department of poultry husbandry of the college, will have charge of the poultry course. A study of the laying hen will be made, and live specimens will be used to illustrate the external characteristics that indicate egg-laying ability. The important factors to be considered in buying and laying out a poultry farm will be taken up. The best methods of killing and packing will be demonstrated, and marketing problems will be discussed. Professor C. H. Royce, of the animal husbandry department, will adapt his instructions, as far as possible, to local problems. Lessons will be given on livestock production, composition of feeds and their selection, systems of breeding, feeding standards, practice in compounding rations, common cattle ailments, rational stable management, community breeding enterprises, and local livestock problems.

W. H. Hook, farm bureau manager of Ulster county, will address the school on Monday, February 21, and Friday, February 25. He will give special attention to plans for follow-up work.

A special feature of the week's program will be an address on Wednesday evening at 7:30 by H. E. Babcock, assistant director of the farm bureau of the college of agriculture. His subject will be co-operation for the promotion of agriculture in Ulster county.

Monday, February 21.

Is Brace and Mayne's "Farm Shop Work," published by the American Book Company. The book teaches the boy how to make various articles of use on the farm and supplies a course for rural and elementary schools. The exercises provide instruction and training along four lines of practical work, woodwork, blacksmithing, concrete work and harness mending. The woodwork department gives instructions for making various articles which all boys enjoy making while the blacksmithing department covers the making of a number of novelties and useful articles which are used by the farmer. In the concrete department articles on sidewalk laying, fence posts and mold making give a practical idea of this work. The harness repairing department deals with this important branch of a farmer's duty and describes the use of the tools required and their care.

Remarkable East Indian Tree.
A tree remarkable for its long taproot, sometimes measuring 84 feet and descending to a vertical depth of 64 feet, has been brought to notice by B. O. Coventry. It is the sand tree, which forms small forests on the arid alluvial plains of the Punjab, where the rainfall is ten inches or less, and the taproot is supposed to have developed gradually as the ground-water level was lowered by the lowering of the rivers through erosion of their beds.

Desert by No Means All Sand.
The French, who have been the greatest explorers of the Sahara desert, have corrected many false ideas about the desert. The most conspicuous and persistent of these errors has been the notion that the desert is a vast area of sand. The French have proved that this is not so. In fact, only about a fifth of the Sahara is covered with sand.

Getting a Start.
He had just taken his first cold bath. "Now," said he to himself, "I must go downtown and drag about the cold bath I take every morning."

Not Really Ancient.
The claim is made that a Maya inscription in Yucatan fixes the date of a building in that region at 200 years B. C. How accurate this claim is, only experts can tell, and probably they will wrangle about it for half a generation before deciding. If established, it will be the oldest date in the history of the western continent—but how modern compared to the records of the lands by the Euphrates and the Nile!

Why Shafts Are Hollow.
By careful experiments it has been proved that a solid column subject to bending strains is no stronger than a hollow one. Consequently all iron shafts which drive the screws of steamships have a hole bored down the center so that weight may be reduced.

INSTALLED PASTOR FOR PONCKHOCKIE

The Rev. F. W. Moot Made Head of Union Church Which is Recognized by Congregational Denomination—The Rev. Dr. Nehemiah Boynton Preaches Sermon.

Impressive services Tuesday evening marked the installation of the Rev. F. W. Moot as pastor and the recognition of Ponckhockie Union Church by the Hudson River Association of Congregational Churches, the double ceremony being witnessed by an audience which crowded the church to its doors. Among the ministers participating were the Rev. Dr. Nehemiah Boynton of Brooklyn, who preached the sermon, the Rev. Charles W. Shelton, superintendent of the New York Conference of Congregational Churches, the Rev. Charles Hager of Albany, and the Rev. Mailler O. Van Keuren of Schenectady, the former home of the Rev. Moot.

Preceding the evening services there was a meeting of the executive council of the association at which the constitution and origin of the church was considered and a paper read by the Rev. Moot expressing his religious experience and faith. The council then by unanimous vote decided to receive the church into the Hudson River Association and install its pastor.

The feature of the evening service was the sermon by the Rev. Dr. Boynton, who took as his text the 5th and 6th verses of the 37th Psalm, and gave a dramatic picture of the plight of the captive Israelites in Babylon and their refusal to sing songs to Zion's God for the amusement of their captors. The dramatic value of this scene was emphasized by the speaker who also laid stress on the wonderful dramatic properties of the Bible and its characters and appealing situations.

The speaker then made a comparison with Babylonish dinners of the present in New York where, he declared, the same demand for novel sensations did not stop at the cheapening of religion, saying that religious America may do well to ask the question today whether it shall accept suggested changes which would have the possible effect of cheapening of religious worship.

The church and religion were depicted as the chief joy of mankind and other joys were painted by Dr. Boynton in three classes, relative, positive and supreme. The innocent joy of the fisherman, the joy of the investor clipping coupons which he said was unknown to the ministry but all right if honestly obtained, the joy of work well done and other joys peculiar to humanity, all were cited but the speaker asserted the chief joy was found in Christian fellowship which included every Christian whether in the most beautiful cathedrals or the humblest chapels, in stricken Armenia, the mission field.

A Beautiful Church.

"We pride ourselves upon our denomination," said Dr. Boynton, "and it has its place, but the great essential is that we are bound together by a spiritual bond which cannot be snapped by the adversary. The principle of association is our chief joy, wherever the work of Christianity is being done there is my brother."

The speaker divided the business of the church into three parts, first being to provide a place of worship, saying: "You people are to be congratulated upon this beautiful Gothic Church whose very architecture has a religious significance, an appropriate environment given to a place where God is worshipped in simplicity, dignity and devotion."

America will make its greatest mistake, declared Dr. Boynton, if its people become careless of the reverence due God and substitute any kind of a pious vaudeville for religious worship, it being a second duty of the church to transmit the truth from generation to generation and to work for the uplift of the community it serves.

A Word For Preparedness.

The third concern of the church, he declared to be aspiration for higher service to keep the country and the flag on the heights where they were put by men of the church. He referred to the stories of plots to explode bombs in churches and said he did not know but that we could dispense with many of the churches to the benefit of the Kingdom of God, but that we cannot dispense with the church.

As for preparedness, he declared, personality and character counted more with the military experts of today than do cannon and ammunition. The finest contribution to preparedness, he said was to put the noblest characters into our boys and the noblest aspirations into our girls which could be done only through the church of Jesus Christ.

Asks Broad Fellowship.

In conclusion the speaker charged the members not to make their church a cramped little, exclusive fellowship but rather a great fellowship with the saints and every lover of Christ in this city and in the world. Attention to church worship, to reverence, simplicity and truth, were urged upon his hearers by Dr. Boynton who told the members of the congregation in conclusion that they should always cherish the aspirations of the church of Jesus Christ for that is the only heaven than can leave the lump and redeem the world.

The Rev. Mr. Sheldon gave a brief

recognition address and described the Congregational Church government with each church complete unto itself.

The Rev. R. S. Smith of Poughkeepsie made the prayer of installation and was followed by the Rev. J. D. Jones of Saugerties who extended the right hand of fellowship to the pastor-elect.

A Loss to Schenectady.

An impressive charge to the pastor was given by the Rev. Mr. Hager and the charge to the people was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Van Keuren. The latter brought congratulations to the church with which he mingled his own regret at losing the services of the Rev. Mr. Moot, whom he styled as the best unpaid assistant any minister ever had. He described the various kinds of church members and admonished his hearers to show interest in their church work, not to expect too much of their pastor but to strive to make of themselves the kind of layman that the Rev. Mr. Moot had proved in his Schenectady church.

The Rev. Mr. Moot pronounced the benediction, after which the services closed and hundreds pressed forward to add their personal congratulations and best wishes for success.

Music Was a Feature.

The church was decorated for the occasion with a number of American flags which harmonized to advantage with the interior coloring.

Some exceptional musical numbers were given during the service, opening with an instrumental selection by Mrs. C. M. DuBois at the Piano, John Schick on the violin and Louis Shoen, cornet. For the offertory solo, Mrs. John Osterhoudt sang "Hear Ye, Oh Israel," and also gave a duet with M. F. Wygant, "The Lord is My Light." Mrs. DuBois presided at the organ.

Following the afternoon services the ladies of the church served a delicious supper in the chapel to the visiting clergymen, delegates and officers of the church. The tables were decorated with carnations and following a delicious exhibition of the culinary resources of the society, the visiting pastors spoke briefly in appreciation. A rising vote of thanks was given the ladies by the members and guests.

The Church and Its Pastor.

Ponckhockie Union Church is the only church building in that section of the city and was erected in 1871 as the gift to the children by Calvin Tompkins and the cement corporation to be used as a children's chapel. Sunday school services which were instituted in 1854 in Ponckhockie were transferred to this edifice where they have since been conducted.

The Rev. Mr. Moot has been pastor of the church since September 1st and will take up his residence at 38 Grove street on April 1st. He is a man of considerable energy and personality who, it is believed, will make his efforts felt in Ponckhockie.

WHY PRINCE ALBERT WINS.

Patented Process Is Responsible for Its International Popularity.

Smokers so much appreciate the flavor and coolness and aroma of Prince Albert pipe and cigarette tobacco that they often marvel that his one brand could be so different from all others. The answer to this question is to be found on the reverse side of every Prince Albert package, where you will read: "Process Patented July 30, 1907." That tells the whole story. Prince Albert is made by a patented process that cuts out the bite and parch, which makes the tobacco so mighty agreeable and satisfying to men of every taste of every civilized nation on the globe.

Smokers should realize that this patented process cost three years' continuous work and study and a fortune in money to perfect. But the result has proven to be worth all that was expended upon it, because it has set free men who believed they never could enjoy a pipe or a makin's cigarette. Prince Albert makes it possible for every man to smoke a pipe or to roll his own cigarettes. And, no matter how tender the tongue, Prince Albert cannot bite or parch. That is cut out by the patented process, leaving for the smoker only the joys of the fragrant tobacco.

An Up-to-Date Improvement.

T. L. Rifenbary & Son have secured the contract for making extensive alterations to the interior of the store of the Up-to-Date Company on Wall street and will start work tomorrow morning. The entire second floor will be turned into sales room and the show cases on the first floor will be removed to the second floor and new cases installed downstairs. The third floor of the store will be turned into an alteration department where suits will be altered.

Chicken Pie and Magic.

This evening from 5 to 8 o'clock the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will serve a chicken pie supper in the association. The proceeds will be used to purchase a Diamond Disc talking machine for the boys of the association. After the supper the last number of the Star Cereal will be given in the auditorium. The great Laurant, magician, and his company of artists will be the attraction.

Twig Cost Doctor an Eye.

Dr. William Brinck fell Tuesday afternoon while walking about his estate at Balmville and a twig penetrated his right eyeball. Physicians at a Newburgh hospital are undecided whether to remove the eye, as recovery of sight in the member is impossible.

Regular W. C. T. U. Meeting.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at St. James's M. E. Church. As the date is the anniversary of Frances E. Willard a large attendance is desired, and the ladies are requested to bring some of Miss Willard's writings.

What Are You Going to Do-Freeze?

Overcoat Time has certainly arrived, and as usual we're doing the biggest overcoat business in town—simply because we've the best overcoats and sell 'em at prices you know are right.

But there are a lot of familiar faces in this locality we should like to see atop of one of these

Kuppenheimer or United Overcoats

And so we're asking—"What are you going to do-Freeze?" when $10, $12, $15, $16.50, $18 or $20 will save you from it.

RANGE BOILER DOES DAMAGE.

Walden Women Injured by Explosion and Fire in Home.

Explosion of a boiler attached to the kitchen range in a Walden home Tuesday morning threw Mrs. C. R. Munson and her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Taylor, across the room, badly scalding the latter. The fire department was called out and damage to the extent of $75 was caused by the hot lids setting fire to the floor. Mrs. Munson has been an invalid for some time since the Ellenville flood last spring when she was among the rescued.

Frank Makes an Assignment.

Barnett Frank, the ladies' tailor at No. 31 Broadway, on Tuesday for the benefit of creditors made an assignment to City Judge William D. Brinnier, Jr. The store was closed that afternoon.

From City Home to Hospital.

Joseph Moran was removed in the city ambulance from the City Home on Tuesday afternoon and conveyed to the Kingston City Hospital.

McGuire is Insane.

As a result of the queer actions of Barney McGuire of Ruby, a frequent occupant of the county jail and at present serving a term within a cell, an investigation recently made by Jail Physician John T. Buckley and Dr. William J. O'Leary as to his sanity, resulted in the decision of the doctors that the man is insane, probably from the excessive use of liquor. This decision was approved by Judge Jenkins and McGuire will be committed to a state institution for the insane.

Secured a Heavy Valentine.

Mrs. Annie Smiley Corkey of Middletown, known on the stage as June Levy, was married Monday afternoon in Atlantic City to Emory Titman, millionaire son of the late head of the Penn Reduction Company of Philadelphia. The groom, who weighs more than 400 pounds, is a familiar figure at Jersey coast resorts.

The Man Who Looks Ahead

Most persons have some goal to which they steer their hopes, but many thoughtlessly unnerve the hand, and dull the brain by faulty living, then wonder why success is not achieved.

Among the everyday habits of life that often upset health is coffee drinking, an ancient and respectable custom, but harmful to many.

The average cup of coffee contains about 2 1/2 grains of caffeine, which, gradually accumulating in the system, often causes nervous prostration, heart trouble, mental depression, etc.

There's an easy way out of coffee troubles—quit the coffee and use

POSTUM

This pure food-drink is a simple combination of whole wheat roasted with a little wholesome molasses—nothing else. It has a snappy, aromatic flavor similar to coffee but is entirely free from the drug, caffeine, or any other injurious substance.

There are two forms of Postum. The original Postum Cereal must be boiled, 15c and 25c packages; Instant Postum, soluble in a cup of hot water, 30c and 50c tins. Both have equal flavor, and cost about the same.

For those who appreciate the opportunity and power that goes with health

ERZERUM FALLS TO RUSSIAN ARMY

Turkish Stronghold in Armenia Captured After a Series of Assaults—
Fate of Turkish Army of 150,000
Not Known.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Petrograd, Feb. 16.—A Russian army under Grand Duke Nicholas has captured Erzerum the chief city of Armenia, after a series of furious assaults lasting more than two weeks.

Official announcement of the capture of the Turkish stronghold was made today by the war office.

Whether or not the Turkish army, estimated at 150,000 men, escaped capture, is not known.

It was reported 48 hours ago that Field Marshal von der Goltz and Field Marshal Liman von Sanders, of the German army, were at Erzerum with the Turkish forces.

The capture of Erzerum is one of the most important victories won by the Russians on the Trans-Caucasian front.

Following the official report of the capture of nine of the forts around the Turkish city it was accepted as a foregone conclusion that the city would soon fall.

The Erzerum fortifications extended in a straight line for 24 miles along a ridge intersecting all the important roads from the Caucasus. When the Russian advance became menacing the German engineers had new defensive works constructed, but it was found that these forts could not stand before the pounding fire of the big Russian guns which were kept directed against the work night and day.

The capture of Erzerum removes a serious obstacle from the path of the advancing Russians. They are in a position now to cut southward along Lake Van to cut the line of communications of the Turkish forces in Mesopotamia.

Erzerum is 675 miles east of Constantinople and about 40 miles from the Russian border.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Mrs. Scott Milligan delightfully entertained a few of her friends at her home on Delta Place on Tuesday afternoon. During the afternoon delicious refreshments were served.

The subscription dance tonight at St. Mary's Hall bids fair to be a great success. Zita's orchestra has been engaged for the evening and will furnish music for a promenade concert from 8 to 9 while dancing will follow from 9 to 2 in the morning.

A party was given at the home of Thelma Shappee, 39 North Front street, in honor of her tenth year. The prizes were won by Hannah M. Finn and Jennie Elmendorf. A supper was served. Those present were M. Zelle, H. Finn, J. Elmendorf, C. Smith, C. Shaw, D. Skulille, T. Shappee, J. Cuniff, D. Kantowitz and J. Liccardo.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Van Buren of Toledo, Ohio, are spending their honeymoon with Mr. Van Buren's parents, Policeman and Mrs. Cornelius Van Buren, No. 115 Downs street. Mr. Van Buren is a former resident of this city and is a musician of note. His many friends wish him and his bride a long and prosperous married life. They expect to spend several weeks in the east, returning later to their home in Toledo.

Miss Emma Weiss, of New York city, was tendered a birthday party Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. James E. Connolly, 65 West O'Reilly street, by a number of friends. Miss Weiss was presented with a beautiful gold watch. During the evening progressive pinocle was indulged in, first prize being awarded to Miss Helen Derrenbacher and second prize to Miss Carrie Derrenbacher. Miss Emma Dittmar received the consolation prize.

Mrs. Charles F. Keefe informally entertained at a sewing party at her home, Lisnaskea, on Lucas Turnpike, on Tuesday afternoon and evening. A delicious little supper was enjoyed by the guests and the evening was spent in playing cards. Those present were Miss Mollie Schaeffer, Mrs. J. P. Loughran, Mrs. Harry Ensign, Miss Blanche Montanye, Mrs. C. Webster, Miss Edna Weber, Miss Marguerite Muller, Mrs. A. B. Schufeldt and Mrs. A. Keefe.

On Tuesday evening a surprise party was tendered Mrs. John W. Frindle by her Sunday school class at her home. During the evening hymns were played and sung and refreshments served by the class. At a late hour they departed for their homes after a most enjoyable evening. Those present were Mrs. M. Schepmoes, Mrs. D. Hicks, Mrs. A. Eckert, Mrs. C. P. Auringer, Mrs. William Dietz, Mrs. Charles Lord, Mrs. E. Simpson, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. B. Brumagham, Mrs. L. Brumagham, and Mrs. S. Hyatt.

St. John's parish house was the scene of a happy throng of dancers Monday night, both young and old enjoying a program of the old and classical dances. The Virginia reel, polkas, lancers, two steps and firemen's reel, composed the dance card for the evening and all these old time dances, resurrected from the scrap pile of dances for this one night, were thoroughly enjoyed. The ladies in charge of the dance report that it was very successful, thanks to the patrons, both from a financial and social standpoint.

The G. C. Society celebrated its first anniversary on Monday evening at the home of Miss Ethel Port on Home street. Favors and decorations were appropriate to Valentine day. The president spoke briefly on the history of the society. Games and dancing were indulged in. Later refreshments were served. Those present were Louise P. Schwab, Gertrude J. Messinger, Theresa M. Schussler, Ethel Port, Gertrude K. Salzman, Katherine E. Messinger, Caroline A. Hermann, Mildred Kaplan, Harold Johnson, Alfred Drautz, Edward Reylea, Ralph Fredericks, Edward Leudtke, Leroy Port.

The Albany Law School chapter of Gamma Eta Gamma fraternity gave its thirteenth annual dinner at Keeler's hotel in Albany Saturday night and a Maine supreme court justice and distinguished lawyers of New York state were guests and speakers. The toastmaster was Charles Tobin, former attorney for the New York state tax commission, and among those who responded to toasts was Roscoe V. Ellsworth, a son of Millard Ellsworth of Port Ewen, who replied to the toast "The Gamma Chapter." William Riseley of this city was the chairman of the committee in charge of the arrangements for the dinner.

A surprise party was given to Miss Florence Fox at her home on Saturday evening in honor of her birthday. Solos were rendered by Miss Mildred Messinger and Edward Fox. Those present were the Misses Helen Broadhead, Mildred Messinger, Florence Wenner, Ida and Dorothy Britcliffe, Frances and Anna May Tauberger, Agnes Fox and Florence Fox. The boys were Ernest Stingle, Clifford Finley, Charles Rugar, Arthur Britcliffe, Harry Hutton, Frank Struble, Joseph Wenner, Warmington Smith, Edward Fox and Chester Fox. All voted Miss Fox a royal entertainer. All departed at a late hour in the morning.

Arrangements for the Shriners' benefit dance to be held at the armory on Wednesday evening, February 22 for the benefit of the Industrial Home, are nearing completion, and indicate that it will far surpass any similar social function ever held in Kingston. The double orchestra will be a feature which will be greatly appreciated by everybody, and the music will be one of the attractive features of the evening. Other features, however, will have a prominent part in the entertainment of guests, and the Shriners expect to maintain their reputation for giving dances which are unexcelled.

Twenty-three Kingstonians composed a sleighing party which went to Bloomington Tuesday evening and enjoyed a turkey supper and entertainment given by the ladies of the Bloomington Reformed Church. The Kingston party was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Woolsey, Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Ostrander, Miss Bertha DeGraff, Miss Florence Craig, Miss Alberta Craig, Miss Bessie Wesley, Miss Rosalie Davis, Miss Marietta Blume, Miss Nellie Van Steenburgh, Miss Alice Toole, Miss Hazel Toole and the Messrs. Walter DeGraff, Charles Gobel, Elias Beatty, Edward Smedes, Raymond Zimmerman and Clyde Vogt.

Accord, Feb. 16.—A party and dance were tendered Mr. and Mrs. George Roosa at their home in Accord Wednesday evening, February 9, it being a complete surprise to Mr. Roosa. He had been out with his cornet for band practice and on returning to his home, a crowd of nearly sixty greeted him with much cheering and applauding. Eight young people were enjoying a square dance, William Slater being the player. In all, about 65 were present, some coming later. Guests were present from out of town, among them being the Misses Ella Shaeley and Julia Broadhead from High Falls and gentleman friends. Refreshments were served, which were enjoyed by the young folks, after dancing so continuously all evening. All departed for their homes at 4:30 a. m., voting Mr. and Mrs. Roosa royal entertainers.

Vernon and Miss Florence Kelly entertained at a Valentine party at their home, 55 Garden street, February 14. The parlor was decorated with hearts, while the dining room was a cobweb design. Various games were played. In the contest of "Old Songs," Miss E. Dederick won a prize. "Advertising contest," R. Cressler, "Heart contest," H. Richter, R. Nickerson rendered several selections on his violin. Baby Juanita Winchell sang two solos. Each one took a cobweb and unwound it. At the end was a heart with a name of a bird or flower. You had to find your partner for lunch. Dainty refreshments were served. At the wee sma' hours they wandered home, voting the host and hostess a delightful time. Those present were Misses E. Dederick, E. Van Gaasbeek, May Wood, F. Elmendorf, Marie, May, E. Langham, H. Kolts, F. Kelly, B. Richter, R. Cressler, F. Bilyou, R. Nickerson, F. Elmendorf, E. Humphrey, H. Richter, A. Fishang, H. Alton, V. Kelly, Mrs. A. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Winchell and Baby Juanita.

Smith-Rowe.
Fred W. Smith of Newburgh, pilot on the Hudson river steamboat "Hendrick Hudson," was married this morning in Jersey City to Miss Elsie M. Rowe of that city. After a six weeks honeymoon in Florida the couple will make their home in Albany.

Federation Executive Meeting.
The regular meeting of the executive committee of the Federation of Women's Clubs will be held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, sharp, at the home of the president, Mrs. C. K. Moulton, on Elmendorf street. As there will be considerable important business to be transacted, a full attendance is urged.

Date of Steiner Lecture.
All persons holding course tickets for the Post Jubilee lectures, or interested in these lectures, are asked to keep in mind the fact that Dr. Steiner will lecture on "The Struggle for Brotherhood," on Friday evening, May 12. This announcement is made at this time, as it was impossible to publish the date previous to this time, and Dr. Steiner is so deservedly popular that many persons will wish to reserve the above mentioned date.

Reception at K. of C. Home.

On Tuesday evening, February 29, a "Leap Year Reception" will be held at the K. of C. Home under the auspices of the Fourth Degree Assembly of the Knights of Columbus. The proceeds are to be used for a good cause and as this is the first public event held under the auspices of the assembly, it no doubt will be largely attended. It will be unique in the fact that it will be held on the unusual date of the 29th of February. Tickets

Rhen-Lasher.

Announcements have been received in this city of the wedding of Miss Adella M. Lasher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abram Lasher of No. 13 Clinton avenue, to Frederick J. Rhen, son of the Rev. Mr. Rhen of the German Lutheran Church of Haverstraw, N. Y., in Mount Vernon at noon on Tuesday. The groom is well known in this city, having been employed for several years as engineer of the board of water supply of New York city. The bride is one of Kingston's popular young ladies. The many friends of the couple wish them a long and happy married life.

Kijkuit Club Meeting.

There was an enthusiastic meeting of the Kijkuit Club held last evening at the home of Miss Clearwater on Washington avenue. The club members decided to purchase necessary material and by degrees make the necessary altar linen for the mission chapel being presided by the Rev. Mr. Kleinschmidt, who so recently conducted a mission at St. John's Church. In order to begin the work at once, the club will hold a special meeting on Friday evening of this week, again at Miss Clearwater's. At this meeting plans will also be discussed for one of the club's popular social events.

Lowell Club.

On Tuesday afternoon the Lowell Club met at the home of Mrs. Augustus Van Buren, there being an unusually large attendance. The roll call consisted of quotations from Gladstone. Mrs. Baragwanath had the first paper of the afternoon, her subject being, "Farnell and the Irish Parliament." Mrs. Van Leuven had the second paper of the day on "Gladstone and Home Rule," and both papers were full of interest and information. There was also special music, the first paper being followed by a delightful vocal solo, "A Little Bit of Heaven," sung by Mrs. Morris, accompanied by Mrs. Van Buren, and with violin obligato by Miss Van Buren. As an encore to this number, Mrs. Morris sang "Little Shamrock." After Mrs. Van Leuven's paper, the club were indeed entertained with a number of characteristic Irish ligs, played by Miss Van Buren, violinist and Mrs. Van Buren at the piano. Mrs. Morris then sang, "Believe Me, All Those Endearing Young Charms," and the afternoon's program was brought to a close with Mrs. Morris singing "Tipperary," the club members joining in the chorus. Next week the club will meet on Monday afternoon instead of Tuesday with Mrs. Martin, when the program for February 29, will be the order of the day.

Noted in New York Post.

In the New York Evening Post of last Saturday, among the musical accounts for which this paper is notable, appeared the program of the Kingston Symphony Orchestra, with the following comment thereon: "There was no soloist at this concert, but so varied was the program so well presented by the orchestra, that the audience was enthusiastic in its expressions of appreciation. The orchestra of some fifty musicians, under the direction of George H. Muller, played the Finale in the Mozart Symphony in a manner that would have been a credit to a professional orchestra of many more years' experience. All of the other numbers were excellent, but this was the highest test of the musicianship of the players. In the afternoon, between five and six hundred children attended the public rehearsal of the program, and listened quietly to the music and the oral description of the instruments and numbers." (Signed) M. M.

Artilleryman's Horse Ran Away.

Abram Lebois, who has served his time as a member of the artillery corps of the United States army, had a narrow escape from serious injury on Tuesday afternoon when the horse he was driving ran away on East Union street, hurling him out and damaging a porch against which the sleigh was hurled. The horse had been in the stable for a few days and was feeling frisky. Coming down the street the animal gave a sudden bound, carrying him up on the sidewalk and the sleigh he was drawing crashed against the porch of the residence of Mrs. Salsburg, while Lebois was hurled out in a snowbank. When the sleigh struck the stoop the frightened horse reared up and the shafts breaking, he dashed up the street. The animal was caught by Policeman Connolly. Lebois escaped with a shaking up.

while the sleigh was damaged. The damage to front porch of the residence was slight, one of the stanchions being torn loose.

Chautauqua Guarantors to Meet.

An important meeting of the guarantors of Chautauqua will be held at the Y. M. C. A. parlors on Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock and all the guarantors are urged to attend. A representative of the Chautauqua association will be present and it is expected that the details of the coming Chautauqua to be held in the high school auditorium the week beginning May 4 will be arranged and a program made up. Officers of the Kingston Chautauqua will also be elected at this meeting. One hundred local men are guarantors of the Chautauqua this year.

Another Lasher Market.

P. A. Lasher, who conducts the meat market on Cedar street, will open another market on Broadway in the Dondoro building on Saturday. The store was formerly occupied as a confectionery store. Mr. Lasher will continue to operate the store on Cedar street.

Possibly Great Truth Here.

Unexpected Cigar Smoker.
James Payn tells us that Jarriet Martineau smoked cigars! "I was told it was good for deafness and tried it. He supplied her with a mild brand, and says he smoked with her often. Yet she would be the last guess, the most unlikely puffer of the weed in the whole category of famous women! One would almost as soon think of Hannah More or Susannah Wesley having an after-dinner cigarette!"

Removing Stains.

Corn starch will remove stains from the dinner frock or party gown. One woman dropped grease on a delicate colored silk frock and put corn starch thickly on the under side, hung up the frock and in a few hours not a trace of grease remained. When the same woman forgot her shields and came home with perspiration stains she treated them to a liberal bath of corn starch while moist and not a stain showed when the goods dried.

Comforting Topsy.

My four-year-old brother is fond of Topsy, the horse, and is always at hand when she is put in the barn. Lately he saw the hired man slap her lightly with a small flat board and told mother of it. He declared it hurt Topsy, and when mother asked him what he said to the man for slapping the horse, he replied: "I didn't say anything, but I winked at Topsy."—Exchange.

PARENTS OF GIRL POISON VICTIM BELIEVE SHE COMMITTED SUICIDE.

Chicago, Feb. 16.—The parents of Miss Marian Lambert, the Deerfield High School girl, whose body was found in Helm's wood, Lake Forest, after she had taken or had been given poison, refuse to believe that William H. Orpet, the twenty-year-old University of Wisconsin student, murdered their daughter. Orpet was taken into custody pending an investigation by the authorities. One theory is that Orpet met the girl in the woods and induced her to take the poison in a suicide pact, after he had refused to marry her and told her of his engagement to Miss Celestia Youker, a normal school teacher of De Kalb, Ill. The two had been sweethearts for more than three years. Orpet claims the girl took the poison with suicidal intent and died at his feet, in the woods.

By La Raconteuse.

Ribbon trimming on novelty Panama straw is extensively used and is especially effective on the very wide brimmed shapes that were formerly confined to sport wear. This season, the manner in which ribbon of one kind or another is arranged, lends a distinctive dressiness that is sure to be approved by those women who prefer this simple style.

THE BIG ISSUES OF 1916.

It is the general opinion of Americans that Elihu Root is the wisest and most far-seeing statesman we have in the United States today, and more than ordinary importance attaches to his ringing speech to the unofficial Republican Convention of New York State in Carnegie Hall Tuesday night. In it the great Senator outlined the issues upon which the approaching National campaign is to be fought, and it is the business of patriotic voters to consider thoughtfully his utterances.

The shameful foreign policy to which President Wilson is wedded was scathingly denounced by Mr. Root. "No man," he said, "should draw a pistol who dares not shoot. The Government which shakes its fist first and its finger afterwards falls into contempt. Our diplomacy has lost its authority and influence because we have been brave in words and irresolute in action." When Wilson entered office 40,000 Americans were living in Mexico, where they had invested a thousand millions of dollars. Factional warfare had broken out in that turbulent country, and "the lives and property of all Americans in Mexico were in danger." It was the first duty of the President, as Mr. Root says, to secure protection for these lives and property, and his second duty to refrain from dominating interference with Mexican internal affairs "except as he was justified by the law of nations." Wilson failed to perform either of these duties. Although "Huerta's was the only power in Mexico to which appeal could be made for protection of life or property," and although it was "only within the territory where Huerta ruled that comparative peace and order prevailed," Wilson demanded that Huerta resign and withhold himself from the country while supplying them freely to his adversaries. In short, "The Government of the United States ignored, condoned, the murder of American men and the rape of American women and destruction of American property and insult to American officers and defilement of the American flag, and joined itself to the men who were guilty of all these things, to pull down the power of Huerta." While doing nothing to protect our citizens, an armed force was sent to Vera Cruz to "determine the Mexican Presidential succession." As Mr. Root said:

With the occupation of Vera Cruz the moral power of the United States in Mexico ended. We were then and we are now hated for what we did to Mexico, and we were then and we are now despised for our feeble and irresolute failure to protect the lives and rights of our citizens. No flag is so dishonored and no citizenship so little worth the claiming in Mexico as ours. And that is why we have failed in Mexico.

Equally revolting to high-minded men was the cowardly attitude of the United States when Belgium was invaded. It is preposterous to claim that it was none of our business, Mr. Root said:

There come times in the lives of nations as of men when to treat wrong as if it were right is treason to the right.

The American people were entitled not merely to feel but to speak concerning the wrong done to Belgium. It was not like interference in the internal affairs of Mexico or any other nation, for this was an international wrong. The law protecting Belgium which was violated was our law, and the law of every other civilized country. For generations we had been urging on and helping in its development and establishment. It was not necessary that the United States should go to war in defense of the violated law. A single official expression by the Government of the United States, a single sentence denying assent and recording disapproval of what Germany did in Belgium would have given to the people of America that leadership to which they were entitled in their earnest groping for the light.

It would have ranged behind American leadership the conscience and morality of the neutral world. It would have brought to American diplomacy the respect and strength of loyalty to a great cause. But it was not to be. The American Government failed to rise to the demands of the great occasion. Gone were the old love of justice; the old passion for liberty; the old sympathy with the oppressed; the old ideal of an American helping the world toward a better future; and there remained in the eyes of mankind only solicitude for trade and profit and prosperity and wealth.

Neither Senator Root, nor the Republican party, for which he speaks, desires war. A shameless foreign policy is the best insurance against war. As Mr. Root said:

Such policies as I have described are doubly dangerous in their effect upon foreign nations and in their effect at home. It is a matter of universal experience that a weak and apprehensive treatment of foreign affairs invites encroachment upon rights and leads to situations in which it is difficult to prevent war, while a firm and frank policy at the outset prevents difficult situations from arising and tends most strongly to preserve peace.

Another insurance against war is preparedness for trouble, and Mr. Root indicts the Wilson administration "for lack of foresight to make timely provision for backing up American diplomacy by actual or assumed military and naval force." He pointed out the indisputable fact that "ordinary practical sense in the conduct of affairs demanded that such steps should be taken," yet when the advocates of preparedness gave voice to their opinions, "their arguments and urgency were ascribed to political motives, and the President described them, with a sneer, as being nervous and excited."

But it is not only upon the issue whether the United States shall continue to stand shame-faced among the nations that the Republican party appeals to the voters. The fictitious prosperity in some industries, due to the war, cannot blind thoughtful people to the tremendous injury which the Democratic administration has inflicted upon our business interests. To understand this we must consider what happened before the war broke out, and what will happen afterward unless our National policy is changed. Mr. Root said:

During the year and a half of Democratic control of Government in a period of profound peace there had been a steady decrease in American production, in exports and in revenues, and a steady increase in imports and expenditures. Enterprise had halted. New undertakings no longer made their appearance. Established business ceased to increase its facilities or enlarge its field of action. The great productive industries of the country, the farmer, the miner, the lumberman, the manufacturer, were laboring under a misfit tariff devised by the Democratic party in a spirit of suspicion, distrust, and hostility toward American business enterprise; and, with the disturbance of these great basic industries, transportation and commerce had become dull and despondent.

All profitable enterprise was under suspicion. Government had no sympathy with it, no desire to promote it, no sense of responsibility to protect it. There was a nervous dread lest somebody should make money. Envy of business success, and the phrases of the demagogue were potent elements in the framing of legislation and the administration of the laws.

It was with just cause that the enterprise of the country halted, timid and irresolute, because it felt and feared the hostility of government. The great war has not changed the lesson which we had already learned when it began. It has but obscured further demonstration.

"But," asked Mr. Root, "what are the people to expect if the Republican party is restored to power?" His answer is that they may expect "a policy of moderate but adequate protection to American industry," that "the Government will be administered with the honesty and efficiency which have marked Republican administrations in the past," that there will be adopted "a foreign policy which, with courtesy and friendliness to all nations, is frank and fearless and honest in its assertion of American rights," and that their Government "will stand for full and adequate preparation by the American people for their own defense." These are the outlines of the leading planks in the next Republican platform, and we have all confidence that these principles will attract the support of a vast majority of our voters.

THIS PREPAREDNESS POPULAR.

Hudson River Items in Rivers and Harbors Bill.

Details of the annual Rivers and Harbors appropriation bill, carrying items aggregating $40,000,000, have been reported to the house. The $700,000 urged by the president to deepen the channel between upper New York bay to the Brooklyn navy yard may be added.

New York items in the bill follow: New York harbor, including Ambrose Channel, $40,000; Hudson river channel, $450,000; Harlem and Bronx rivers, $250,000 each; Staten Island (New York and New Jersey), $500,000; Port Chester, $27,500; Gowanus Bay, Red Hook channel, $150,000; Buffalo harbor, $140,000; Oswego harbor, $100,000; Hudson river, $640,000, together with authorization for $910,000 more in contracts to be paid from subsequent appropriations.

The only extra feature is an item for the survey of the whole river to ascertain the probable cost of deepening the channel to 25 feet from the Highlands to Albany, and also giving Rondout and Hudson deeper river fronts.

The bar of sand opposite Haverstraw is to be dredged as a part of the deepening of the whole channel.

Cut Tendon With a Skate.

David G. LeNoir, a South Carolina student at Poughkeepsie college, cut a tendon and artery in his foot during his first venture on skates six weeks ago. The tendon was spliced and LeNoir has just been discharged from a hospital.

Game and Dance Tonight.

There will be a basketball game at the Holy Cross parish house tonight—Peerless vs. Holy Cross. The contest will commence early in order to have plenty of time for dancing.

LITTLE LAUGHS.

"I must be getting old." "What makes you think so?" "I seem to have lost all desire to wear white flannel trousers on Sundays and holidays."—Detroit Free Press.

"Those two women fell out about nothing." "Are you sure?" "Yes. They quarrelled over their social standing, and neither one has any."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Hobson—"My wife never wastes anything." Dobson—"No?" Hobson—"No. If it's edible, it goes into the hash; and if it isn't, it will do to trim a hat."—Judge.

She (at the concert)—"What did you think of that last singer?" He—"Well, she's courageous, anyway. The submarine scare didn't keep her away from the high C's—Boston Transcript.

New Man on the Road—"What is the best time for me to see the head of this firm I'm working for, boy?" Office Boy—"Between the time he gets your sales account and the time he gets your expense-account."—Puck.

"Mrs. Flubdub seems devoted to her husband." "Yes, she's a queer woman. Says she is perfectly satisfied to look after her home, as she does not think she could make a success on the stage."—Louisville Courier Journal.

"I believe," said the impatient man, as he put aside the telephone, "that I'll go fishing." "Didn't know you cared for fishing." "I don't ordinarily. But it's the only chance I have of a line that isn't busy."—Washington Star.

The Reward.

Pierre Rogdestvensky, Russian consul to San Francisco, was talking about Bulgaria's apostasy.

"But she'll get little gratitude and little reward from Germany," he said. "She'll find herself, at the end, in the position of the young man at the glove counter."

"Give me a pair of four-button white kids, No. 6, please," said a young lady to this clerk. "Why," she added, with a start, haven't I seen you before?"

"Oh, Mabel!" cried the clerk, "you haven't forgotten me, then, after all! Don't you remember how I saved your life in the surf last summer, and we became engaged and—"

"Why, yes, to be sure," said the young lady, brightly. "And—er—you can make it two pairs of four-button kids, if you like."—San Francisco Examiner.

How Young She Looks!

Little Willie became slightly indisposed, and when the family doctor was called he prescribed some medicine in powder form.

"Come, Willie," said the fond mother, preparing one of the powders as soon as the medicine arrived from the drug store, "you must take this right away so that you will be well."

"No, I don't want to take it," whined Willie, backing away from the dose. "I don't need no medicine."

"Why, Willie," pleaded mother, gently, drawing the boy toward her, "you never heard me complain about a little powder did you?"

"No, and neither would I," was the startling rejoinder of Willie, "if I could put it on my face like you do, but I have to swallow it."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Getting Posted.

One of the freshmen at Yale immediately applied to the proper officer of the university upon the day of his entrance into that institution for information concerning his father's stay there before him.

"I should like to see my father's record," said he. "He was in the class of '75."

"I shall be glad to show you the record," said the officer, "but have you any special reason for consulting it?"

"Well," said the youth, "when I left home dad told me not to disgrace him, and I wish to see just how far I can go."—Boston Post.

His Good Idea.

The serious-looking man was trying hard to listen to the speaker's eloquence, but the squalling of an infant in the row of seats directly ahead gave him little opportunity.

"Annoyance gave way to irritation, and irritation was in turn superseded by resolve. He leaned forward, touched the mother on the shoulder, and in a dispassionate tone asked:

"Has your baby been christened yet?"

"Why, no, sir. Why do you ask?" "Merely because I was about to suggest that if he had not been christened you might name him Good Idea."

You Ask Us "What is a One Cent Sale?"

It is a sale where you buy an item at the regular price—then another item of the same kind for 1c. As an illustration: The standard price of Rexall Tooth Paste is 25c. You buy a tube at this price and by paying 1c more or 26c you get two tubes. Every article in this sale is a high class standard piece of merchandise just the same as we sell you every day at regular prices, and have sold you for years.

You Ask Us "Can You Afford to Sell Merchandise at These Prices?"

Our answer is "We cannot. This sale was developed by the United Drug Co. as an advertising plan. Rather than spend large sums of money in other ways to convince you of the merit of these goods they are spending on this sale in permitting us to sell you a full size package of high standard merchandise for 1c. It costs money to get new customers and the loss taken on this sale will be well spent if the goods please you.

Little Talks With Want Ad Readers

Have you ever been in a country
town when salesmen or saleswomen
from a big city store are there to sell their goods? If so, you no
doubt have observed their methods
of advertising. As soon as they arrive, and often before their arrival,
they placard the town with ads, telling the people what they are there
for and what they have to sell.

This method of advertising costs a
very great deal of money, for there
are printing bills to be met and then,
usually, they must pay for the privilege of putting their cards in
stores or other public places.

Then, too, it must be remembered
that only a portion of the people
passing these places of advertisement read the ads and many persons
do not pass the ads at all.

Now, with the Want Ad of the
newspaper, the situation is entirely
different, for nearly everybody, rich
and poor, read the daily paper and,
in a majority of instances, they never
put it down until they have at least
glanced through the Want Columns.

So that the man, or woman, of the business world, who uses the Want Ads to sell his, or her ability, or
realty, or rent, hire, exchange, or
buy, is pretty certain to have practically the entire locality in which
the newspaper circulates know of
his, or her, need, or want in these lines.

Then, too, this form of advertising is practically free, for there are
no printing bills to be met and no
bonus to be paid for placing your
Want Ad in the paper.

Don't forget all these benefits to
be derived from Want Ad advertising and, when you have a need that
must be supplied in buying, selling,
renting, exchanging, or hiring, just
turn to the Want Columns of the newspaper and let them show you
how rapidly and cheaply and efficiently they work.

ICE HARVEST BEGINS AT STEEP ROCKS

There was a difference of twenty-
two degrees in the temperature this morning from that of Tuesday morning and during the day the weather
moderated further. Tuesday morning at 7:30 o'clock thermometers on lower Broadway registered ten degrees below zero, while this morning
at the same time they registered
twelve degrees above zero.

The work of harvesting ice at Steep Rocks was started this morning by the Foster Scott Ice Company
and fully two hundred men were put
to work by the company. This is the first ice harvested from the
river this season in this vicinity.

During the night the channel of
the Transport froze over and the
ferry this morning was over an hour
making its first trip. The ferry,
however, did not experience as much
difficulty in breaking through the ice today as it did on Tuesday as the
ice was heavier then.

The work of filling the ice house
of the Cornell Steamboat Company
was started today. The ice was unloaded from railroad cars and came from the Binnwaters.

A number of loaded ice barges filled with Binnwater ice lie in the creek. They will be towed to New York city as soon as the river is
open again for navigation.

ULSTER PARK.

Ulster Park, Feb. 16.—The WILling Workers Society will hold their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs.
I. D. Churchwell Friday, February 18. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

R. L. Mosler had the misfortune to cut one of his fingers off one day

Mrs. C. Van Oostenbrugge, who has been ill with pleurisy, is slowly recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Winfield and daughter, Alder, spent the week end
in New York.

The leader of the C. E. next Sunday night will be Mrs. L. F. Page.
Topic, "How to Put the Bible into Life." Ps. 119; 105-112.

There was no service in the Brick
Church Sunday because of the storm.

Mrs. J. Sahler has returned home
after a long stay with her daughter
in Hurley.

Miss Zellma Terpening of Union
Center is still at the parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Mont Cole entertained friends at their home Saturday evening. Those present were
Mr. and Mrs. William Terpening, Mr.
and Mrs. Ed. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs.
Herring, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Story,
Miss Croker and Ernest Allen of Poughkeepsie.

Willenay Terpening, our mail carrier, is enjoying two weeks' vacation.
Mont. Cole is taking his place.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Weiser were called to New York last Saturday to attend the funeral of her brother,
who died suddenly.

The family of the late Mrs. M. A.
Ellison wish to express their most
sincere thanks to all who in any way
helped to lighten their burden of sorrow during the illness, death and funeral of their mother and grandmother,
and to all who sent flowers while she
was ill and the funeral, and to the Rev. C. Van Oostenbrugge, the Rev. S. T. Cole and D. W. Benton for their comforting and consoling
words; and we would not forget to thank the organist and singers for rendering their part which was very impressive and for which we were very grateful.

Lafayette Holstein was in this place over Lincoln's birthday.

Letter of Appreciation.

Kingston, N. Y., Feb. 16, 1916.
We, the Publicity Committee of
the Union Evangelical Movement,
held in this city for the past three weeks, takes pleasure in extending
our sincere thanks for the untiring effort given:

First: In the displaying of window cards by business houses.
Second: To the boys who distributed door-hangers and hand-bills.
Third: To the Sunday school
classes which assisted in preparing hangers and tags.

Fourth: To all others, who by
their impartiality and interest helped
to assure the great work, success.
Respectfully yours,
DR. ERNEST K. LEE, chairman.

A Talk to Retailers

Manufacturers from time to time advertise their brands and their products in this newspaper.

Each advertisement means more business for the stores that carry these goods.

It means new customers, and enlarged sales.

That business will go to the retailers who co-operate with the newspaper advertising by showing the goods.

The customers interested by the newspaper advertising will see the goods in the windows and will accept them as the merchant's invitation to come in.

PORT EWEN.

Port Ewen, Feb. 16.—Esopus
Council, No. 42, Sons and Daughters
of Liberty, will meet this evening
at 7:30 o'clock in their rooms in Hutton's Hall.

Mrs. F. H. Oswald and Miss Mildred Oswald of Brooklyn were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Groves on Broadway.

Division No. 3, of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church,
will hold a clam chowder sale in the chapel Friday, February 18.
Chowder will be ready by noon. Or-
George W. Shultis or with any of the members. The chairman of the division, Mrs. Anna Elting, superin-
tends the making of the chowder,
and she has the reputation of making the best ever. Price 25 cents a quart.

The prayer meeting Thursday
evening will be of a new feature
for the Methodists. The gentlemen
will meet in the chapel and the
ladies in the parsonage, both meetings to commence at 7:30. A large attendance is desired.

Vinyl LeFever, engineer on the tug Saratoga, New York city, is spending a few days at his home on Broadway.

Howard Proper is ill at his home
on Salem street. Dr. G. W. Ross is in attendance.

1520—A Simple Popular Frock for

Mother's Girl—Girl's Dress With
or Without Belt, and With Sleeve
in Either of Two Lengths.

Batiste, lawn, percale, gingham,
chambray, taffeta, repp or voile,
cashmere or poplin are all good for
this attractive style. The dress portions are mounted on a square yoke,
and the fullness below the yoke portions may be gathered or shirred, or
finished as illustrated with smock-
ing. The pattern is cut in 4 sizes,
4, 6, 8 and 10 years. It requires 3 1/2
yards of 36 inch material for a 6
year size.

A pattern of this illustration
mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman,
Routout, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted.

Catalogue Notice.

Send 10 cents in silver or stamps
for our up-to-date 1916 large Spring and Summer Catalogue, containing over 400 designs of Ladies' Misses'
and Children's Patterns, as well as the latest Embroidery Designs, also a concise and comprehensive article on dressmaking, giving valuable hints to the home dressmaker.

ALLABEN.

Allaben, Feb. 15.—Mr. and Mrs.
Charles Clearwater, who have been spending the winter months in Union Hill, N. J., with their daughter, Mrs. C. Quenby, have returned to their home.

Mrs. Jane Wright, who has been quite ill with cold and grip, is improving at this writing.

Quite a few people attended the
quarterly conference of the Methodist Churches at Big Indian Sunday.
John Evans conveyed the party to
that place.

Mrs. Theron Townsend and mother, Mrs. Melissa Wood of Shandaken
were guests of Mrs. Charles Blakesley last Wednesday at dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Segilken of Phoenix are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a boy at their home Thursday night. He has been named Herbert Clifford Segil-
ken, Jr.

Miss Anna Lafferty has gone to Oneonta for a visit.

Sunday and Monday were the
coldest days we have had this winter. Some reported that the temperature was seventeen below zero.
No trouble about getting ice for this winter continues.

G. B. Riseley expects to cut ice
from the pond of W. Coons in Shandaken.

Mrs. G. F. Van Keuren is greatly missed in this village. She is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. H. Dick-
son, in Arena.

Quite a few people in this vicinity
are ill with the grip. The wise ones
will stay away from people who
have this disease as it is contagious.
Little Virginia Van Keuren of Kingston is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van Keuren.

Glee Club Will Attend.

The members of the Y. M. C. A.
Glee Club will attend the chicken pie
supper at the Y. M. C. A. this evening. Plates will be laid for them
and they will sit down to eat at 6:30
o'clock. All the new members of
the chorus will eat at the same time.
This supper is given by the Ladies'
Auxiliary for the benefit of the boys
of the Y. M. C. A. and the proceeds will be used to purchase a Diamond
Disc machine.

Optimistic Thought.

Even innocence itself is liable to commit seeming improprieties.

THEY SAY.

"You can have this magazine for
nothing," spoke a slippery tongued
agent to an uptown man yesterday.
"If you buy it with Blank's (a 16-
cent magazine) for 55 cents," he added. His offer was too glowing
for reality, however, and the prospective purchaser thought of the
'Fall Guys.'

The groundhog theory of weather
prognostication held good for exactly eleven days. But at that the prediction is about as accurate as anything from Washington forecasters,
who on Monday proclaimed "rising
temperatures" for the next 24 hours.
The only rise was that obtained by
the elements out of the weather
sharps.

A hot cup of coffee was absent
from many breakfasts yesterday
which may have accounted for any
grouchiness of disposition manifested in down town business circles.
Not only was the gas concealed but
the milk of human kindness was frozen stiff within the confines of
many domestic circles. Complaints
to the gas office, however, failed to indicate any lack of warmth.

Snuggling against the radiators in
the street cars is a popular posture
with travelers. The seats over the heaters are generally crowded and if conversation hostility were popular some of the inscriptions would doubtless read: "Don't crowd." "No
trespassing," and other warnings.
But the atmosphere in the cars is a guarantee against any fashionable
up on this line.

There is a regular system of
"spotting" employed by various
moving picture houses in the city
who send checkers about to competing theaters whose business it is to count the attendance and note the attraction. In this way an idea is obtained of the receipts and also as to the pulling power of stars. The hour of 8:30 o'clock or thereabouts
is said to be the most favorable time
to secure accurate attendance dope.

Further proof of the business boom
hitting the country is the fact that
the Barge Manufacturing Company of Canton, Ohio, are forced to restrict shipments to the different
agencies on account of the great demand for their manufactures—metal
ceilings, filing cabinets, etc. This is
a $5,000,000 corporation and is unable to satisfy all the demands for
their manufactures on account of the scarcity of metals. They allow each
of their distributors a certain quantity of their products.

Traveling men in town relate wonderful tales of the effect the war
boom in munitions has upon cities
which they canvass. They bring almost unbelievable tales of the mushroom growths of certain cities containing munition plants. The rooming houses in Bridgeport, Conn., are
so greatly in demand that the room-
ers are obliged to occupy their rooms
only eight hours, the day being divided into three eight hour shifts. All
the rooms in hotels are engaged by
one o'clock in the afternoon and in order to engage accommodations, a traveling man must telephone ahead.

LORD CURZON.
FORMER VICEROY OF INDIA FOR
NEW PORTFOLIO.

London, Feb. 16.—It is expected
that Lord Curzon, former viceroy of India, will be named as the minister
of aviation, the new portfolio to be added to the British war cabinet.

Lord Northcliffe, through his
newspapers denies that he is a candidate for the new position. He declares that there are men better
able than he to undertake the task.
Commenting editorially on Lord
Northcliffe's refusal to accept the position, the Daily Mail, one of his
newspapers, says:

"He believes it to be instantly
necessary to appoint an air minister and he believes there is no man
among the twenty-two members of the present cabinet sufficiently informed on the subject to be of any
use in the immediate future when
the German air offensive, according
to all information which reaches us
from Germany, is likely to become
more than serious."

SPRING SUITS AND SILK DRESSES

Our line of Suits is comprised of a bewildering variety of the season's newest and smartest modes. We believe that our line of Suits and Dresses is as clever and our prices as just as either could possibly be. Our line is not made for one class of customers, but for every class who like good merchandise. "Our Motto"—Quality First.

SUITS

Our Suits for Spring, bear the mark of exclusiveness, and are the best in style, material, workmanship, and price--

They comprise the newest in wool checks and broken bar effects—silk in clever combinations, of Taffetas and Failles—many new styles in Poplins Gaberdines. Prices from

$22.50 to $39.50

SILK DRESSES

The woman of to-day is keen and alert. Her knowledge of style, quality, workmanship, and value is equal to that of the average merchant. She seeks more in a dress than ever before, and therefore it is necessary for us, who cater to the woman "who knows" to make every effort to show the best, the exclusive at all times.

By a visit to our Dress department, we can surely convince you of the most exclusive and stunning spring models in Silk Crepe Dechene and Taffeta, both plain and stripes, that has ever been your pleasure to inspect.

The prices are nominal, ranging from

MATTERS BEFORE THE SURROGATE

A hearing was had in the surrogate's court on Tuesday in the matter of the judicial settlement of the account of Marcella Jordan, as executrix of the estate of Thomas Jordan of this city, and a decree passing and approving the account was granted. Christopher A. Murray appeared for the executrix.

A hearing was had in the matter of the judicial settlement of the account of Simon Verwoy, as executor of the estate of Harriette Newell of the town of Shawangunk, and a decree was granted. A. S. Embler of Walden appeared for the executor.

In the estate of Alfred Connelly, formerly of this city, an order was granted declaring the estate exempt from tax under the taxable transfer act. Arthur C. Connelly appeared for Jennie Spencer, the administratrix. Similar orders were granted in the estates of Lydia M. Thorp, of which Harry K. Abell is administrator, and Cornelia Krom, of which Ernest A. Kelly is administrator. Arthur C. Connelly appeared in each matter for the administrator. A similar order was granted in the estate of Sophia Hiltebrandt, of which Frederick A. and Frank P. Hiltebrandt are executors. Brimmer & Canfield appeared for the executors. Joseph H. Vandervlyn appeared for the state comptroller in each proceeding.

ELLENVILLE.

Ellenville, Feb. 16.—The famous African explorer and hunter, F. A. Clark, gave a very interesting illustrated lecture in the high school auditorium on Saturday evening, February 12. Mr. Clark accompanied Theodore Roosevelt on his famous expedition to Africa, in 1912, and many rare and interesting pictures, taken at that time, were shown on Saturday evening. Mr. Clark is not a professional lecturer and could not be secured at any price as a public speaker, but consented to speak under the auspices of the men's class of the Reformed Church, through the courtesy of Frank Seamon (proprietor of Yama Farms), at whose home he was a guest.

We are informed that Yama Farms Inn was filled to overflowing with guests over Lincoln's birthday and the week end. This famous resort has been very popular this winter as a place of rest and recreation. One of the finest moving pictures of the season was entitled "Winter Sports at Yama Farms, Napanoch, N. Y."

Jansen Hornbeek and Herbert Wood of New York, also Fred Carver of Columbia College spent the holiday and Sunday with their parents in this village.

Mrs. H. B. Raymond is quite seriously ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. E. Terwilliger, on Center street. Dr. Wilkoff is in attendance. Mr. Raymond came up from New York on Friday and spent the week end with his family, returning on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Maurice Deponal is reported critically ill from pneumonia. She is under the care of Dr. B. F. Neal, but owing to her advanced age her condition is considered serious.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Howard Hornbeek will remove on April 1st from their present location on Canal street to the Vernon residence on North Main street.

Alex. Terwilliger, who has been spending a week with relatives and friends in Middletown, returned home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ryan returned on Friday evening from a short trip to Searsville, Orange county, where they had gone on Thursday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Ryan's uncle, L. M. Hulstander.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Eugene Clark have been heard from at Atlanta, Ga., where they met Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Clark, all of this village.

Ed. J. Bailey, Jr., has sold his business and stock of china crockery, glassware and household furnishings to Rose & Douglas, hardware merchants, of this place.

The Ellenville high school basketball team went to Port Jervis last Friday evening and played a fast game with the Port Jervis H. S. of that city, resulting in a victory for Ellenville. Score 25 to 18.

On Friday evening, February 25, the Kingston high school team will play a game with the Ellenville boys at Norbury Hall in this village. The boys say they will make a great effort to win back the laurels they lost at Kingston when they played last in that city.

LEIBHARDT.

Leibhardt, Feb. 16.—Mrs. Arthur Davis of Whitfield is enjoying a week's visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Eliza C. DeWitt.

Mrs. Albert Lounsbury, Mrs. L. E. Lawrence and Mrs. Alex. Brown were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. William Hornbeek last Thursday. A very pleasant visit Thursday by all the ladies.

Mrs. William Hornbeek of Whitfield was called to this place on Monday by the sudden death of her father, Chancellor Quick.

Miss Georgia Hornbeek entertained two lady friends from Kingston over Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Gray and Mrs. Christina Gray were guests of Mrs. Pernia Hornbeek on Wednesday week.

Miss Louella Brown spent Sunday afternoon and evening with Mrs. L. E. Lawrence.

John Mertine of Tabasco was in this place Tuesday breaking a fine pair of matched steers.

Emily Quick has returned home after spending a week with Mrs. Simon Miller.

Mrs. Elmer Lyons and three sons of Middletown have returned home

Where IDEAL heating is on guard, you are sure the folks at home are comfortable—"snug as a bug in a rug." Now-a-days not to have your family radiator-comforted makes your friends wonder, particularly since you could take advantage of the great economies which come from big fuel savings, absence of repairs, easy care-taking, and safety. Ask any of your radiator warmed friends about

there—thus protecting the family health. No other heating apparatus in any way competes with IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators, hence their rapid and wide use in cottages and all larger buildings—more than a million installations at home and abroad.

A No. 2-1/2" W IDEAL Boiler and 461 ft. of 1/2" MIDEAL Radiators, costing the owner $215, were used to heat this cottage. At this price the goods can be bought of any reputable, competent fitter. This did not include cost of labor, pipe, valves, freight, etc., which vary according to climatic and other conditions.

ARCO WAND Vacuum Cleaner—a genuine, practical Cleaner—$150

We also make the ARCO WAND Vacuum Cleaner, connected by iron suction pipe to various floors of houses, drawing up dust, dirt, lint, threads, moths, etc., are drawn with lightning rapidity down the iron piping into big, sealed dust-bucket in cellar. No dragging around a clumsy, inefficient portable cleaner—instead you have a practical outfit that is a part of the building—like radiator heating. Ask for catalog (free).

No exclusive agents.
Sold by all dealers.

Painless Extractions

During the year 1915 the Cady Dental Offices in Poughkeepsie, Kingston, Newburgh and Middletown performed over ten thousand extractions. These operations were painless. Local Anesthetics were used in the majority of cases but nitrous-oxide gas in a few. This wonderful record should make a deep impression on those who have teeth which require extraction and desire to have the operation done painlessly.

DAY'S WAR NEWS
AT A GLANCE

Washington—United States will continue to press request that European belligerents disarm all merchant ships. Likely United States will ask Teutonic powers to defer new policy attacking these ships.

Paris—Three Teutonic submarines sunk in Adriatic by French cruiser, Echo de Paris says. England, France and Russia given solemn pledge to Belgium will not make peace with Germany until independence Belgium restored.

Berlin—Attempts by English and French to recapture positions taken by Germans all been repulsed.

Potograd—Erzerum, Turkish fortress in Asia Minor, captured by Russians.

Rome—Italian artillery cannonading Austrian positions all along Isonzo front.

Life and Character Reading
FEBRUARY 16

The man or woman of this horoscope is of artistic temperament, of strong will and quick temper. Women born on this date are good cooks and fine managers. The ruling planets are Saturn and Uranus. Unexpected turns of fortune will occur until late in life when the person becomes more settled. The most fortunate marriage is with the person born the last two weeks in May or the first two weeks in June.

This person is inclined to be of a highly nervous temperament and needs to control mind and body. The birthstone is sapphire. The luckiest weeks are those beginning October 14.

SPRING ADV. WRITING.

REACHING out for Spring trade is new

the order among live merchants. Let me show you that newspaper readers always appreciate the unusual in advertising. A little clever ingenuity in display, combined with a tactfully worded appeal

such as I employ, can be made to reach the eye and hold the attention of many readers who might not be otherwise interested. Why not give my advertising service a trial? George M. Zellmer, care of Kingston Freeman.

Small Successes Satisfy Many.

There are none so low but they have their triumphs. Small successes satisfy small souls.—Boyer.

DEAD TRAMP'S
NAME WAS BAXTER

He Hailed From Newark, N. J., According to a Fellow Tramp Who Viewed the Body This Morning.

William Kelly the hobo who called at the Kingston City Hospital this morning, visited the undertaking parlors of Coroner E. A. Kelly on West Union street this noon and identified the body of the tramp shot at Saugerties, as that of a man named Baxter of Newark, N. J. Kelly informed the coroner that he and Baxter had hoboed it together through the country. He had heard of the shooting while in Saugerties and being curious to know if it was his pal had come on to Kingston to see the body.

This afternoon Dr. Gifford of Saugerties and Dr. Stern of this city performed an autopsy on the body of the dead man at the undertaking parlors of the coroner.

Coroner Kelly said that an inquest would be held later.

WHITMAN ONE OF THE BIG FOUR

Agreement to Have Him Head the Delegation Later Changed and he is Second, Senator Wadsworth Being First.

New York, Feb. 16.—Governor Charles S. Whitman today received a setback at the hands of the New York state Republican party. When the state convention adjourned at 2:10 this afternoon the governor held second place on the "Big Four" delegates at large who will speak for the Empire State when a presidential candidate is nominated at Chicago in June.

At the Republican club it was agreed by the committee on delegates to allow Governor Whitman to head the list.

On the way to the hall, however, the committee, in taxicabs, changed the order and the delegates at large were elected by the convention as follows:

United States Senator, James W. Wadsworth, Jr.; Governor Charles S. Whitman, Frederick C. Tanner, state chairman, and State Senator Elton R. Brown, floor leader at Albany.

The convention met this afternoon after a wrangle between friends and foes of Governor Charles S. Whitman in the resolutions committee had caused almost two hours' delay and adopted a platform condemning the administration of President Wilson and advocating a greater navy and preparedness policy that would assure adequate defense.

A secondary platform presented by the resolutions committee endorsed the present administration, headed by Gov. Whitman. The governor's friends had attempted to have this endorsement given in the main platform but they were defeated in committee.

INSTALLED PASTOR FOR PONCKHOCKIE

Impressive services Tuesday evening marked the installation of the Rev. F. W. Moot as pastor and the recognition of Ponckhockie Union Church by the Hudson River Association of Congregational Churches, the double ceremony being witnessed by an audience which crowded the church to its doors. Among the ministers participating were the Rev. Dr. Nehemiah Boynton of Brooklyn, who preached the sermon, the Rev. Charles W. Shelton, superintendent of the New York Conference of Congregational Churches, the Rev. Charles Hager of Albany, and the Rev. Mr. Van Keuren of Schenectady, the former home of the Rev. Mr. Moot.

Preceding the evening services there was a meeting of the executive council of the association at which the constitution and origin of the church was considered and a paper read by the Rev. Mr. Moot expressing his religious experience and faith. The council then by unanimous vote decided to receive the church into the Hudson River Association and install its pastor.

The feature of the evening service was the sermon by the Rev. Dr. Boynton, who took as his text the 5th and 6th verses of the 17th Psalm, and gave a dramatic picture of the plight of the captive Israelites in Babylon and their refusal to sing songs to Zion's God for the amusement of their captors. The dramatic value of this scene was emphasized by the speaker who also laid stress on the wonderful dramatic properties of the Bible and its characters and appealing situations.

The speaker then made a comparison with Babylonish dinners of the present in New York where, he declared, the same demand for novel sensations did not stop at the cheapening of religion, saying that religious America may do well to ask the question today whether it shall accept suggested changes which would have the possible effect of cheapening of religious worship.

The church and religion were depicted as the chief joy of mankind and other joys were painted by Dr. Boynton in three classes, relative, positive and supreme. The innocent joy of the fisherman, the joy of the investor clipping coupons which he said was unknown to the ministry but all right if honestly obtained, the joy of work well done and other joys peculiar to humanity, all were cited but the speaker asserted the chief joy was found in Christian fellowship which included every Christian whether in the most beautiful cathedrals or the humblest chapels, in stricken Armenia, the mission field.

A Beautiful Church.

"We pride ourselves upon our denomination," said Dr. Boynton, "and it is its place, but the great essential is that we are bound together by a spiritual bond which cannot be snapped by the adversary. The principle of association is our chief joy, wherever the work of Christianity is being done there is my brother."

The speaker divided the business of the church into three parts, first being to provide a place of worship, saying:

"You people are to be congratulated upon this beautiful Gothic Church whose very architecture has a religious significance, an appropriate environment given to a place where God is worshipped in simplicity, dignity and devotion."

America will make its greatest mistake, declared Dr. Boynton, if its people become careless of the reverence due God and substitute any kind of a pious vaudeville for religious worship, it being a second duty of the church to transmit the truth from generation to generation and to work for the uplift of the community it serves.

A Word For Preparedness.

The third concern of the church, he declared, was to be aspiration for higher service to keep the country and the flag on the heights where they were put by men of the church. He referred to the stories of plots to explode bombs in churches and said he did not know but that we could dispense with many of the churches to the benefit of the Kingdom of God, but that we cannot dispense with the church.

As for preparedness, he declared, personality and character counted more with the military experts of today than do cannon and ammunition. The finest contribution to preparedness, he said, was to put the noblest characters into our boys and the noblest aspirations into our girls which could be done only through the church of Jesus Christ.

Asks Broad Fellowship.

In conclusion the speaker charged the members not to make their church a cramped little, exclusive fellowship but rather a great fellowship with the saints and every lover of Christ in this city and in the world. Attention to church worship, to reverence, simplicity and truth, were urged upon his hearers by Dr. Boynton who told the members of the congregation in conclusion that they should always cherish the aspirations of the church of Jesus Christ for that is the only haven that can lighten the lump and redeem the world.

recognition address and described the Congregational Church government with each church complete unto itself.

The Rev. R. S. Smith of Poughkeepsie made the prayer of installation and was followed by the Rev. J. D. Jones of Saugerties who extended the right hand of fellowship to the pastor-elect.

A Loss to Schenectady.

An impressive charge to the pastor was given by the Rev. Mr. Hager and the charge to the people was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Van Keuren. The latter brought congratulations to the church with which he mingled his own regret at losing the services of the Rev. Mr. Moot whom he styled as the best unpaid assistant any minister ever had. He described the various kinds of church members and admonished his hearers to show interest in their church work, not to expect too much of their pastor but to strive to make of themselves the kind of layman that the Rev. Mr. Moot had proved in his Schenectady church.

The Rev. Mr. Moot pronounced the benediction, after which the services closed and hundreds pressed forward to add their personal congratulations and best wishes for success.

Music Was a Feature.

The church was decorated for the occasion with a number of American flags which harmonized to advantage with the interior coloring.

Some exceptional musical numbers were given during the service, opening with an instrumental selection by Mrs. C. M. DuBois at the piano, John Schick on the violin and Louis Schenck, cornet. For the offertory solo, Mrs. John Osterhout sang "Hear Ye, Oh Israel," and also gave a duet with M. F. Wygant, "The Lord is My Light." Mrs. DuBois presided at the organ.

Following the afternoon services the ladies of the church served a delicious supper in the chapel to the visiting clergymen, delegates and officers of the church. The tables were decorated with carnations and following a delicious exhibition of the culinary resources of the society, the visiting pastors spoke briefly in appreciation. A rising vote of thanks was given the ladies by the members and guests.

Ponckhockie Union Church is the only church building in that section of the city and was erected in 1871 as the gift to the children by Calvin Tompkins and the cement corporation to be used as a children's chapel Sunday school services which were instituted in 1884 in Ponckhockie were transferred to this edifice where they have since been conducted.

The Rev. Mr. Moot has been pastor of the church since September 1st and will take up his residence at 39 Grove street on April 1st. He is a man of considerable energy and personality who, it is believed, will make his efforts felt in Ponckhockie.

WHY PRINCE ALBERT WINS.

Patented Process Is Responsible for Its International Popularity.

Smokers so much appreciate the flavor and coolness and aroma of Prince Albert pipe and cigarette tobacco that they often marvel that his one brand could be so different from all others. The answer to this question is to be found on the reverse side of every Prince Albert package, where you will read: "Process Patented July 30, 1907." That tells the whole story. Prince Albert is made by a patented process that cuts out the bite and parch, which makes the tobacco so mighty agreeable and satisfying to men of every taste of every civilized nation on the globe.

Smokers should realize that this patented process cost three years' continuous work and study and a fortune in money to perfect. But the result has proven to be worth all that was expended upon it, because it has set free men who believed they never could enjoy a pipe or a making's cigarette. Prince Albert makes it possible for every man to smoke a pipe or to roll his own cigarettes. And no matter how tender the tongue, Prince Albert cannot bite or parch. That is cut out by the patented process, leaving for the smoker only the joys of the fragrant tobacco.

An Up-to-Date Improvement.

T. I. Rifenbary & Son have secured the contract for making extensive alterations to the interior of the store of the Up-to-Date Company on Wall street and will start work tomorrow morning. The entire second floor will be turned into sales room and the snow cases on the first floor will be removed to the second floor and new cases installed downstairs. The third floor of the store will be turned into an alteration department where suits will be altered.

Chicken Pie and Magic.

This evening from 5 to 8 o'clock the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will serve a chicken pie supper in the association. The proceeds will be used to purchase a Diamond Disc talking machine for the boys of the association. After the supper, the last number of the Star Course will be given in the auditorium. The great Laurant, magician, and his company of artists will be the attraction.

Twig Cost Doctor an Eye.

Dr. William Brinck fell Tuesday afternoon while walking about his estate at Balmville and a twig penetrated his right eyeball. Physicians at a Newburgh hospital are undecided whether to remove the eye, as recovery of sight in the member is impossible.

Regular W. C. T. U. Meeting.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at St. James' M. E. Church. As the date is the anniversary of Frances E. Willard a large attendance is desired, and the ladies are requested to bring some of Miss Willard's writings.

Walden Women Injured by Explosion and Fire in Home.

Explosion of a boiler attached to the kitchen range in a Walden home Tuesday morning threw Mrs. C. R. Munson and her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Taylor, across the room, badly scalding the latter. The fire department was called out and damage to the extent of $75 was caused by the hot liquids setting fire to the floor.

Mrs. Munson has been an invalid for some time since the Ellenville flood last spring when she was among the rescued.

McGuire is Insane.

As a result of the queer actions of Barney McGuire of Ruby, a frequent occupant of the county jail and at present serving a term within a cell, an investigation recently made by Jail Physician John T. Buckley and Dr. William J. O'Leary as to his sanity, resulted in the decision of the doctors that the man is insane, probably from the excessive use of liquor. This decision was approved by Judge Jenkins and McGuire will be committed to a state institution for the insane.

Secured a Heavy Valentine.

Mrs. Annie Smiley Corkey of Middletown, known on the stage as June Levy, was married Monday afternoon in Atlantic City to Emory Tiltman, millionaire son of the late head of the Penn Reduction Company of Philadelphia. The Man Who Looks Ahead

Most persons have some goal to which they steer their hopes, but many thoughtlessly unnerve the hand, and dull the brain by faulty living, then wonder why success is not achieved.

Among the everyday habits of life that often upset health is coffee drinking, an ancient and respectable custom, but harmful to many.

The average cup of coffee contains about 2 1/2 grains of caffeine, which, gradually accumulating in the system, often causes nervous prostration, heart trouble, mental depression, etc.

There's an easy way out of coffee troubles—quit the coffee and use

POSTUM

This pure food-drink is a simple combination of whole wheat roasted with a little wholesome molasses—nothing else. It has a snappy, aromatic flavor similar to coffee but is entirely free from the drug, caffeine, or any other injurious substance.

There are two forms of Postum. The original Postum Cereal must be boiled. 15c and 25c packages. Instant Postum, soluble in a cup of hot water. 25c and 50c tins. Both have equal flavor, and cost about the same.

ATHLETIC CONTESTS
AT THE Y.M.C.A.

Another game was played between
the Peaches and Cherries in the Student
B basketball league at the Y. M.
C. A. on Tuesday afternoon which
was won by the former by a score of 26 to 19. The two teams tied for first place at the close of the league
and a series of three games were arranged to decide the championship
team. Each team has now won one game and the deciding game will be played shortly. The Peaches are Thompson, Every, Kirchner, Horton
and Adams, while the Cherries are Vignes, Bruyn, Fowler, Smith and Leventhal.

The Employed Boys basketball
team will travel to Ellenville on February 26, where they will play the Juniors of the Ellenville high school.
Tuesday evening the big gym was filled with seniors taking spring tonic
in the form of exercise.

COMMON COUNCIL

It took the city fathers ten minutes to hold the regular meeting on Tuesday evening at the city hall, and
the only business of importance was
the authorization to issue a note for $4,400 and the raising of the salary
of the city hall janitor from $60 to $75 a month owing to increased
work. The meeting night was the eighteenth anniversary of the blowing up of the Maine in Havana harbor, but none of the aldermen indulged in any bursts of oratory on
the question of preparedness or kindred topics.

The meeting was presided over by Alderman-at-Large Walter P. Crane
with Aldermen Smith, Schick, Mar-
quardt, Parish, Kullman, Shultis,
Brown and Purvis present. The ab-
sentees were Aldermen McKittick,
Leverich, Fischer, Connelly and Hull.
City Treasurer Doremus sent in a
communication calling attention to
the fact that the city's promissory
note for $4,400 covering part of the cost of the construction of Andrew
street, Lavan street and Mary's avenue sewer had fallen due.

Alderman Shultis offered a resolution that the mayor be authorized to
issue a new note for the amount,
which was carried.

This is an old note that has been carried along for years as a result of
litigation growing out of the collection of the special assessment. The city has secured a judgment against
Mrs. Cecelia B. O'Reilly, but pending
an order from the court directing its collection this new note had to be issued.

The ways and means committee to
whom had been referred the resolution offered at the last meeting by Alderman Marquardt regarding the
raising of the salary of the city hall
janitor, Richard Dawe, from $60 to $75 a month, reported favorably and
the report was adopted.

Alderman-at-Large Crane announced the appointment of the following committees:

Committee on Auditing Accounts—

Aldermen Leverich (chairman),

Fischer and presiding officer.

Committee on Finance, Ways and

Means—Aldermen McKittick (chairman), Kullman and Parish.

Committee on Buildings, Repairs

and Supplies—Aldermen Schick

(chairman), Brown, Hull, Purvis and

Marquardt.

Committee on Railroads—Aldermen

Smith (chairman), Shultis and

Fischer.

Committee on Laws and Rules—

Aldermen Brown (chairman), Lever-

ich, McKittick, Purvis and Smith.

Committee on Elections—Aldermen

Connelly (chairman), Kullman and Parish.

MT. TREMPER.

Mr. Tremper, Feb. 16.—The community was greatly saddened by the
word Sunday morning that Mrs.
James DeVall had passed into rest.
It came as a shock to many as she had only been ill a few days. She leaves a host of friends to mourn
the loss of one who was always a kind neighbor, willing to help any-
one in time of trouble and one
whose place it would be hard to fill.
The deepest sympathy is extended to
the bereaved husband. The funeral will be held at the Reformed Church
on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. John Davidson of
New York city were called here by
the illness of Mrs. James DeVall.
There were no services on Sunday
at the church on account of the storm.

The play, "Farm Folks," will be repeated on Wednesday evening,
February 16, at the hall, followed
by an oyster supper. The play was also success last Friday evening,
in spite of the stormy weather, and
quite a large crowd attended. It was a success in every way, even the supper as everyone was complimenting the "oyster stew." Forty dollars was realized last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Slyvert and daughter, Gertrude, have all been ill
with the grip.

Mrs. Harry Ecker is recovering from an attack of quinsy sore
throat.

The Misses Mabel and Addie Rise-
ley took tea with the Misses Randall
last Wednesday.

Mrs. Hoyt has gone to Philadelphia, where she will visit relatives
for a few weeks.

Miss Tillie Miester has gone to the city for a three weeks' visit.

The friends of Norman Wilber,
hope for his speedy recovery from
the operation he had at the Kingston
City Hospital on Monday.

MENKE'S DAILY
SPORTING LETTER

(By Frank G. Menke.)

New York, Feb. 16.—In the history of baseball records no case is stranger than that of Hal Chase.

Still in the prime of his career,
still the most brilliant fielding first
baseman the game ever has known,
he finds himself an "undesirable,"
finds that no major league club
wants him at any price.

Hal Chase is paying—and dearly,
too—for the folly of other years;
for the follies that he committed
while still an American Leaguer.
The fact that he is not wanted by
any big league magnates is not due
to the fact that he jumped to the Federal League. Other players did
just as Hal did and have been welcomed back. But Hal's offenses, in the eyes of the baseball powers,
have been many.

And Hal now must pay.
Probably no player ever was
idolized more than Chase; probably
none, outside of Ty Cobb, Christy
Mathewson and Honus Wagner, ever
were lauded from one end of the land to the other as was Chase. In
the early years of his connection
with the Yankees, Chase was the sensation of the American League.

Praise Turns Head.

The praise showered upon him
turned the head of Hal Chase. From a modest, retiring youth, he blossomed into one who became arrogant. He grew to be as tempera-
mental as a prima donna and his clashes with his teammates became frequent. But Chase because he was a star—and a real one—was coddled and petted by his owners.

Chase reached the crest when he
was made manager of the Yankees.
And the honor made Hal Chase "unbearable" in the opinion of his teammates. He ran his team as he saw fit and soon there were charges
of dissensions in the Yankee camp.

"Chase is a trouble maker," was flashed around the circuit—and throughout New York. Stories began to appear which bitterly criticized Chase; stories that "panned"
him for his conduct. He was accused of listlessness on the ball
field; accused of thwarting the best interests of his club. He was accused of many things, some true
but most of the exaggerated or absolutely untrue.

But those stories painted black
the name of Hal Chase. He no longer was the drawing card of
yore. He still played with the brilliancy of old, but no longer was he idolized. And no matter how great
a player a man is, the fans don't
warm up to him unless there is something about his personality that
is likable.

Chase Popularity Waned.

Chase lingered longer with the Yanks but his work seemed to fall off. He no longer played with the same old spirit. The mechanical skill still was apparent, but there was no life in his play. And while
the papers hammered him the fans
clamored for his release.

Back in 1910 or 1911 Chase
would have brought around $25,000
on the auction block, but none of
the clubs seemed over anxious to get him when he was placed on the auction block. When the White Sox offered Rollie Zeider, the new bun-ion-less infielder, and "Babe" Borton, the Yank owners eagerly seized
the opportunity—and Chase went to the White Sox.

For a while, Chase showed flashes
of his old-time skill, but the lacing
that New York had given him
ranked; the thought that he—Hal Chase, "The Peerless"—had been
traded for two mediocre players,
walloped his pride more than anything else ever had. And with such feelings pulsing through his brain
his mind was not on his work, and so
he played only a fair sort of game
for the Sox.

Chase Jumps to Feds.

Just at a time when the Chicago-
ans were beginning to make unkind
remarks about him and intimate that he was a "has-been," Chase got an offer from the Federal League and jumped. The bigger salary wasn't
the main factor in deciding that
jump. The real reason was that Hal
Chase looked upon the Federal circuit as a haven of refuge from those
in the American League—who knocked him.

The American League battled in court to prevent Chase from playing
in the Federal League. The Americans fought for him in court, not so much to prevent the Feds from getting him, but, it is said, with the hope that he would be ruled the property of the Americans so that
the Americans could ride him out of the big leagues.

Chase finally was awarded to the Feds, and he played as wonderfully
during the latter part of 1914 and
throughout 1915 as he ever played
in his life. He seemed a changed
man. The "hammering" he had been subjected to had its effect.
Hal Chase became normal again,
he threw his whole heart and soul
in his work and his "comeback" was one of the sensations of the Fed circuit last year.

No One Wants Him.

Hal Chase today, in the opinion of
many baseball experts, is a more wonderful first baseman than the bulk
of the regulars in both big leagues;
Hal Chase is hitting again in the
way that made him one of the most
feared batsmen in baseball a few years ago; Hal Chase's mechanical
power is unimpaired, his brain is as nimble as ever.

But Hal Chase is an "undesir-
able," he offended the baseball
powers, and despite the fact that in
his attitude today he is a changed
man, those powers haven't forgotten.

Hal Chase is an expert—out of a job; jobless at a time when many ball clubs need such an expert as Hal
Chase.

There is no baseball "blacklist,"
so we have been told. But is there a "gentlemen's agreement?"

COTTEKILL.

Cottekill, Feb. 16.—The predictions of the "ground hog" seem to be rather misleading this year. On

LOOKING FOR WORK

Everywhere men complain about
work; even boys and girls in school or
business find work tedious and irk-
some, but it isn't the work half so much
as their own lack of physical strength
that makes it hard.

Rich blood, strong lungs and health-
ful digestion make work pleasurable
in business, in school or even house-
work, and if those who are easily tired
—who are not sick, but weak and nervous—would just take Scott's Emulsion for one month and let its pure
concentrated food create richer blood
to pulsate through every artery and
vein—let it build a structure of healthy
tissue and give you vigorous strength
—you would find work easy and would
look for more. Insist on Scott's.

Friday snow began to fall which
continued until Sunday afternoon,
although only about 14 inches fell,
but the temperature began to drop
and on Tuesday had dropped to 29
degrees below zero, and with the 16
or 18 inches of snow, which is now
on the ground, makes one think of winter.

since which time he has been confined to his bed. One day the past week he had another stroke, which
left him in a very weak condition.

ERZERUM FALLS TO RUSSIAN ARMY

Turkish Stronghold in Armenia Captured After a Series of Assaults—Face of Turkish Army of 150,000
Not Known.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Petrograd, Feb. 16.—A Russian army under Grand Duke Nicholas has captured Erzerum the chief city of Armenia, after a series of furious assaults lasting more than two weeks.

Official announcement of the capture of the Turkish stronghold was made today by the war office.

Whether or not the Turkish army, estimated at 150,000 men, escaped capture, is not known.

It was reported 48 hours ago that Field Marshal von der Goltz and Field Marshal Liman von Sanders, of the German army, were at Erzerum with the Turkish forces.

The capture of Erzerum is one of the most important victories won by the Russians on the Trans-Caucasian front.

Following the official report of the capture of nine of the forts around the Turkish city it was accepted as a foregone conclusion that the city would soon fall.

The Erzerum fortifications extended in a straight line for 24 miles along a ridge intersecting all the important roads from the Caucasus. When the Russian advance became menacing the German engineers had new defensive works constructed, but it was found that these forts could not stand before the pounding fire of the big Russian guns which were kept directed against the work night and day.

The capture of Erzerum removes a serious obstacle from the path of the advancing Russians. They are in a position now to cut southward along Lake Van to cut the line of communications of the Turkish forces in Mesopotamia.

Erzerum is 675 miles east of Constantinople and about 40 miles from the Russian border.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Mrs. Scott Milligan delightfully entertained a few of her friends at her home on Delta Place on Tuesday afternoon. During the afternoon delicious refreshments were served.

The subscription dance tonight at St. Mary's Hall bids fair to be a great success. Zita's orchestra has been engaged for the evening and will furnish music for a promenade concert from 8 to 9 while dancing will follow from 9 to 2 in the morning.

A party was given at the home of Thelma Shappee, 39 North Front street, in honor of her tenth year.

Fun and Jennie Elmendorf, a supper was served. Those present were M. Zehe, H. Finn, J. Elmendorf, C. Smith, C. Shaw, D. Skulle, T. Shappee, J. Cunniff, D. Kantowitz and J. Liccardo.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Van Buren of Toledo, Ohio, are spending their honeymoon with Mr. Van Buren's parents, Policeman Mr. Cornelius Van Buren, No. 115 Downs street. Mr. Van Buren is a former resident of this city and is a musician of note. His many friends wish him and his bride a long and prosperous married life. They expect to spend several weeks in the east, returning later to their home in Toledo.

Miss Emma Weiss, of New York city, was tendered a birthday party Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. James E. Connelly, 65 West O'Reilly street, by a number of friends. Miss Weiss was presented with a beautiful gold watch. During the evening progressive pinocle was indulged in, first prize being awarded to Miss Helen Derrenbacher and second prize to Miss Carrie Derrenbacher. Miss Emma Dittmar received the consolation prize.

Mrs. Charles F. Keefe informally entertained at a sewing party at her home, Lisnaskea, on Lucas Turnpike, on Tuesday afternoon and evening. A delicious little supper was enjoyed by the guests and the evening was spent in playing cards. Those present were Miss Mollie Schaeffer, Mrs. J. F. Loughran, Mrs. Harry Ensign, Miss Blanche Montanye, Mrs. C. Weber, Miss Ednah Weber, Miss Margaret Muller, Mrs. A. B. Schufeldt and Mrs. A. Keefe.

On Tuesday evening a surprise party was tendered Mrs. John W. Friddle by her Sunday school class at her home. During the evening games were played and sung and refreshments served by the class. At a late hour they departed for their homes after a most enjoyable evening. Those present were Mrs. M. Schepmoes, Mrs. D. Hicks, Mrs. A. Eckert, Mrs. C. P. Auringer, Mrs. William Rietz, Mrs. Charles Lord, Mrs. E. Simpson, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. B. Brumaghin, Mrs. L. Brumaghin, and Mrs. S. Hyatt.

St. John's parish house was the scene of a happy throng of dancers Monday night, both young and old enjoying a program of the old and classical dances. The Virginia reel, polkas, lancers, two steps and firemen's reel, composed the dance card for the evening and all these old time dances, resurrected from the scrap pile of dances for this one night were thoroughly enjoyed. The ladies in charge of the dance report that it was very successful, thanks to the patrons, both from a financial and social standpoint.

The G. C. Society celebrated its first anniversary on Monday evening at the home of Miss Ethel Port on Home street. Favors and decorations were appropriate to Valentine day. The president spoke briefly on the history of the society. Games and dancing were indulged in. Later refreshments were served. Those present were Louise P. Schwab, Gertrude J. Montague, Theresa M. Schaeffer, Ethel Port, Gertrude K. Schaeffer, Katherine E. Messinger, Caroline A. Hermann, Mildred Kay-lan, Harold Johnson, Alfred Drautz, Edward Nelson, Ralph Fredericks, Edward Ledatke, Leroy Port.

The Albany Law School chapter of Gamma Eta Gamma fraternity gave its thirteenth annual dinner at Keeler's hotel in Albany Saturday night and a Maine supreme court justice and distinguished lawyers of New York state were guests and speakers. The toastmaster was Charles Tobin, former attorney for the New York state tax commission, and among those who responded to toasts was Roscoe V. Ellsworth, a son of Millard Ellsworth of Port Ewen, who replied to the toast "The Gamma Chapter." William Riscley of this city was the chairman of the committee in charge of the arrangements for the dinner.

A surprise party was given to Miss Florence Fox at her home on Saturday evening in honor of her birthday. Soles were tendered by Miss Mildred Messinger and Edward Fox. Those present were the Misses Helen Broadhead, Mildred Messinger, Florence Wemmer, Ida and Dorothy Britcliffe, Frances and Anna May Tauberger, Agnes Fox and Florence Fox. The boys were Ernest Stingle, Clifford Finley, Charles Ruger, Arthur Britcliffe, Harry Hutton, Frank Struble, Joseph Wemmer, Warrington Smith, Edward Fox and Chester Fox. All voted Miss Fox a royal entertainer. All departed at a late hour in the morning.

Arrangements for the Shriners' benefit dance to be held at the armory on Wednesday evening, February 23, for the benefit of the Industrial Home, are nearing completion, and indicate that it will far surpass any similar social function ever held in Kingston. The double orchestra will be a feature which will be greatly appreciated by everybody, and the music will be one of the attractive features of the evening. Other features, however, will have a prominent part in the entertainment of guests, and the Shriners expect to maintain their reputation for giving dances which are unexcelled.

Twenty-three Kingstonians composed a sleighing party which went to Bloomington Tuesday evening and enjoyed a turkey supper and entertainment given by the ladies of the Bloomington Reformed Church. The Kingston party was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Woolsey, Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Ostrander, Miss Bertha DeGraft, Miss Florence Craig, Miss Alberta Craig, Miss Bessie Wesley, Miss Rosalie Davis, Miss Marietta Blume, Miss Nellie Van Steenburgh, Miss Alice Toole, Miss Hazel Toole and the Messrs. Walter DeGraft, Charles Gobel, Silas Beatty, Edward Smedes, Raymond Zimmermann and Clyde Vogt.

Accord, Feb. 16.—A party and dance were tendered Mr. and Mrs. George Roosa at their home in Accord Wednesday evening, February 9, it being a complete surprise to Mr. Roosa. He had been out with his cornet for band practice and on returning to his home, a crowd of nearly sixty greeted him with much cheering and applauding. Eight young people were enjoying a square dance, William Slater being the player. In all, about 65 were present, some coming later. Guests were present from out of town, among them being the Misses Ella Sheeley and Julia Broadhead from High Falls and gentleman friends. Refreshments were served, which were enjoyed by the young folks, after dancing so continuously all evening. All departed for their homes at 4:30 a. m., voting Mr. and Mrs. Roosa royal entertainers.

Vernon and Miss Florence Kelly entertained at a Valentine party at their home, 55 Garden street, February 14. The parlor was decorated with hearts, while the dining room was a cobweb design. Various games were played. In the contest of "Old Songs," Miss E. Dederick won a prize; Advertising contest, R. Cressler; "Heart contest," H. Richter. R. Nickerson rendered several selections on his violin. Baby Juanita Winchell sang two songs. Each one took a cobweb and unwound it. At the end was a heart with a name of a bird or flower. You had to find your partner for lunch. Dainty refreshments were served. At the wee sma' hours they wandered home, voting the host and hostess a delightful time. Those present were Misses E. Dederick, E. Van Gaasbeck, May W. Longham, H. Kolts, F. Kelly, B. Richter, R. Cressler, F. Bilyou, R. Nickerson, F. Elmendorf, E. Humphrey, H. Richter, A. Fish, ang, H. Alton, V. Kelly, Mrs. A. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Winchell and Baby Juanita.

Smith-Rowe.

Fred W. Smith of Newburgh, pilot on the Hudson river steamboat "Hendrick Hudson," was married this morning in Jersey City to Miss Elsie M. Rowe of that city. After a six weeks honeymoon in Florida the couple will make their home in Albany.

Federation Executive Meeting.

The regular meeting of the executive committee of the Federation of Women's Clubs will be held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, sharp, at the home of the president, Mrs. C. K. Moulton, on Elmendorf street. As there will be considerable important business to be transacted, a full attendance is urged.

Date of Steiner Lecture.

All persons holding course tickets for the Post Jubilee lectures, or interested in these lectures, are asked to keep in mind the fact that Dr. Steiner will lecture on "The Struggle for Brotherhood," on Friday evening, May 12. This announcement is made at this time, as it was impossible to publish the date previous to this time, and Dr. Steiner is so deservedly popular that many persons will wish to reserve the above mentioned date.

Reception at K. of C. Home.

On Tuesday evening, February 23, a "Leap Year Reception" will be held at the K. of C. Home under the auspices of the Fourth Degree Assembly of the Knights of Columbus. The proceeds are to be used for a good cause and as this is the first public event held under the auspices of the assembly, it will be unique in that and so well presented by the orchestra, that the audience was enthusiastic in its expressions of

OUR Final Clean-Up Sale ends on the above days. You know what values you received during the closing days of last year's sale. Couple this with the fact that we are going to make extensive alterations to the interior of our store, which include complete renovation of the second floor, new Circassian walnut fixtures, new side racks, new mirrors, the work-room to be removed from the second to the third floor, and many other improvements to make this store more convenient to our customers and one of the most attractive cloak and suit houses in the Hudson Valley.

In order to clear our racks of the entire what's left stock of Fall and Winter Coats, Suits, Skirts, Dresses and Furs, we start Thursday morning, February 17th, one of the most gigantic clearance sales ever inaugurated in the annals of Kingston and of Ulster county.

The sale will continue until Saturday, February 19th, after which time we turn our store over to the carpenters, painters and masons. This is your last chance and an opportunity that should not be missed by one woman of this city or county. If you fail to attend this sale, you have but yourself to blame. NEVER SUCH VALUES! Rhen-Lasher.

Announcements have been received in this city of the wedding of Miss Adella M. Lasher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abram Lasher of No. 13 Clinton avenue, to Frederick J. Rhen, son of the Rev. Mr. Rhen of the German Lutheran Church of Haverstraw, N. Y., in Mount Vernon at noon on Tuesday. The groom is well known in this city, having been employed for several years as engineer of the board of water supply of New York city. The bride is one of Kingston's popular young ladies. The many friends of the couple wish them a long and happy married life.

Kijkuit Club Meeting.

There was an enthusiastic meeting of the Kijkuit Club held last evening at the home of Miss Clearwater on Washington avenue. The club members decided to purchase necessary material and by degrees make the necessary altar linen for the mission chapel being presided by the Rev. Mr. Kleinschmidt, who so recently conducted a mission at St. John's Church. In order to begin the work at once, the club will hold a special meeting on Friday evening of this week, again at Miss Clearwater's. At this meeting plans will also be discussed for one of the club's popular social events.

Lowell Club.

On Tuesday afternoon the Lowell Club met at the home of Mrs. Augustus Van Buren, there being an unusually large attendance. The roll call consisted of quotations from Gladstone. Mrs. Baragwanath had the first paper of the afternoon, her subject being, "Parnell and the Irish Parliament." Mrs. Van Leuven had the second paper of the day on "Gladstone and Home Rule," and both papers were full of interest and information. There was also special music, the first paper being followed by a delightful vocal solo, "A Little Bit of Heaven," sung by Mrs. Morris, accompanied by Mrs. Van Buren, and with violin obligato by Miss Van Buren. As an encore to this number, Mrs. Morris sang, "Little Shamrock." After Mrs. Van Leuven's paper, the club were indeed entertained with a number of characteristic Irish plays, played by Miss Van Buren, violinist and Mrs. Van Buren at the piano. Mrs. Morris then sang, "Believe Me, All Those Endearing Young Charms," and the afternoon's program was brought to a close with Mrs. Morris singing "Tipperary," the club members joining in the chorus. Next week the club will meet on Monday afternoon instead of Tuesday with Mrs. Martin, when the program for February 29, will be the order of the day.

Noted in New York Post.

In the New York Evening Post of last Saturday, among the musical accounts for which this paper is noted, appeared the program of the Kingston Symphony Orchestra, with the following comment thereon: "There was no soloist at this concert, but so varied was the program, and so well presented by the orchestra, that the audience was enraptured in its expressions of preciation. The orchestra of some fifty musicians, under the direction of George H. Muller, played the Finale in the Mozart Symphony in a manner that would have been a credit to a professional orchestra of many more years' experience. All of the other numbers were excellent, but this was the highest test of the musicianship of the players. In the afternoon, between five and six hundred children attended the public rehearsal of the program, and listened quietly to the music and the oral description of the instruments and numbers. (Signed) M."

Artilleryman's Horse Ran Away.

Abram Lebois, who has served his time as a member of the artillery corps of the United States army, had a narrow escape from serious injury on Tuesday afternoon when the horse he was driving ran away on East Union street, hurling him off and damaging a porch against which the sleigh was hurled. The horse had been in the stable for a few days and was feeling frisky. Coming down the street the animal gave a sudden bound, carrying him up on the sidewalk and the sleigh he was drawing crashed against the porch of the residence of Mrs. Salsburg, while Lebois was hurled out in a snowbank. When the sleigh struck the stoop the frightened horse reared up and the shafts breaking, he dashed up the street. The animal was caught by Policeman Connelly. Lebois escaped with a shaking up.

Another Lasher Market.

P. A. Lasher, who conducts the meat market on Cedar street, will open another market on Broadway in the Dondero building on Saturday. The store was formerly occupied as a confectionery store. Mr. Lasher will continue to operate the store on Cedar street.

Possibly Great Truth Here.

"Success in politics," said Uncle Eben, "depends a whole lot on bein' a good guesser."

Unexpected Glass Suction.

James Payn tells us that Harriet Martineau smoked cigars. He was told it was good for death and tried it. He supplied her with a mild brand, and says he smoked with her often. Yet she would be the last guess, the most unlikely puffer of the weed in the whole category of famous women! One would almost as soon think of Hannah More or Susannah Wesley having an after-dinner cigarette!

Mrs. Hep's Sayings.

"Th trouble with this hull uplift propoishun," was the thoughtful decision of Mrs. Jonathan Hep as she hung out the clothes, "is that most uv the fellers that starts upliftin' fergits that if they lets go before somebody else gets under and takes hold, they's a wuss mess o' fallin' down than they wuz in the first place."—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Encouraging Him.

"Do you think your father would consent to our marriage?" "He might. Father's so eccentric, you know."—Buffalo Express.

Removing Stains.

Corn starch will remove stains from the dinner frock or party gown. One woman dropped grease on a delicate colored silk frock and put corn starch thickly on the under side, hung up the frock and in a few hours not a trace of grease remained. When the same woman forgot her shields and came home with perspiration stains she treated them to a liberal bath of corn starch while moist and not a stain showed when the goods dried.

Comforting Topsy.

My four-year-old brother is fond of Topsy, the horse, and is always at hand when she is put in the barn. Lately he saw the hired man slap her lightly with a small flat board and told mother of it. He declared it hurt Topsy, and when mother asked him what he said to the man for slapping the horse, he replied: "I didn't say anything, but I winked at Topsy."—Exchange.

Petrograd Store Signs.

Many of the stores in Petrograd have before the doors pictorial representations of the goods on sale inside.

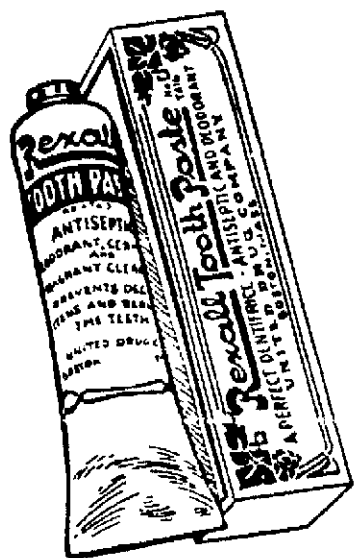

Ribbon trimming on novelty Panama straw is extensively used and is especially effective on the very wide brimmed shapes that were formerly confined to sport wear. This season, the manner in which ribbon of one kind or another is arranged, lends a distinctive dressiness that is sure to be approved by those women who prefer this simple style.

PARENTS OF GIRL POISON VICTIM BELIEVE SHE COMMITTED SUICIDE.

Chicago, Feb. 16.—The parents of Miss Marian Lambert, the Deerfield High School girl, whose body was found in Heim's wood, Lake Forest, after she had taken or had been given poison, refuse to believe that William H. Orpet, the twenty-year-old University of Wisconsin student, murdered their daughter. Orpet was taken into custody pending an investigation by the authorities. One theory is that Orpet met the girl in the woods and induced her to take the poison in a suicide pact, after he had refused to marry her and told her of his engagement to Miss Celestia Youker, a normal school teacher of De Kalb, Ill. The two had been sweethearts for more than three years. Orpet claims the girl took the poison with suicidal intent and died at his feet, in the woods.

Little Talks With Want Ad Readers

Have you ever been in a country
town when salesmen or saleswomen
from a big city store are there to
sell their goods? If so, you no
doubt have observed their methods
of advertising. As soon as they arrive, and often before their arrival,
they placard the town with ads, telling the people what they are there
for and what they have to sell.

This method of advertising costs a
very great deal of money, for there
are printing bills to be met and then,
usually, they must pay for the
privilege of putting their cards in
stores or other public places.

Then, too, it must be remembered
that only a portion of the people
passing these places of advertisement read the ads and many persons
do not pass the ads at all.

Now, with the Want Ad of the
newspaper, the situation is entirely
different, for nearly everybody, rich
and poor, read the daily paper and the majority of instances, they never
put it down until they have at least
glanced through the Want Columns.

So that the man, or woman, of the
business world, who uses the Want Ads to sell his, or her ability, or
realty, or rent, hire, exchange, or
buy, is pretty certain to have practically the entire locality in which
the newspaper circulates know of
his, or her, need, or want in these
lines.

Then, too, this form of advertising is practically free, for there are
no printing bills to be met, and no
bonus to be paid for placing your
Want Ad in the paper.

Don't forget all these benefits to
be derived from Want Ad advertising and, when you have a need that
must be supplied in buying, selling,
renting, exchanging, or hiring, just
turn to the Want Columns of the
newspaper and let them show you
how rapidly and cheaply and efficiently they work.

ICE HARVEST BEGINS AT STEEP ROCKS

There was a difference of twenty-
two degrees in the temperature this
morning from that of Tuesday morning and during the day the weather
moderated further. Tuesday morning at 7:30 o'clock thermometers on
lower Broadway registered ten degrees below zero, while this morning
at the same time they registered
twelve degrees above zero.

The work of harvesting ice at Steep Rocks was started this morning by the Foster Scott Ice Company
and fully two hundred men were put
to work by the company. This is
the first ice harvested from the
river this season in this vicinity.

During the night the channel of
the Transport froze over and the
ferry this morning was over an hour
making its first trip. The ferry,
however, did not experience as much
difficulty in breaking through the
ice today as it did on Tuesday as the
ice was heavier then.

of the Cornell Steamboat Company
was started today. The ice was unloaded from railroad cars and came from the Blinewaters.

A number of loaded ice barges filled with Blinewater ice lie in the creek. They will be towed to New York city as soon as the river is
open again for navigation.

ULSTER PARK.

Ulster Park, Feb. 16.—The Wm.
L. Mosier had the misfortune to cut one of his fingers off one day last week.

Ernest Eckert is spending some time with his sister, Mrs. Wells, of Poughkeepsie.

Miss Eva Wheeler spent a few days
last week at Poughkeepsie.

Miss May Bowker of Brooklyn, N.
Y., spent the week end with Mrs. E.
Wheeler.

Mrs. C. Van Oostenbrugge, who has been ill with pleurisy, is slowly recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Winfield and daughter, Alder, spent the week end
in New York.

The leader of the C. E. next Sunday night will be Mrs. I. F. Page.
Topic, "How to Put the Bible Into
Life." Ps. 119; 105-112.

There was no service in the Brick
Church Sunday because of the storm.

Mrs. J. Sahler has returned home
after a long stay with her daughter
in Hurley.

Miss Zelma Terpening of Union
Center is still at the parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Mont. Cole entertained friends at their home Saturday evening. Those present were
Mr. and Mrs. William Terpening, Mr.
and Mrs. Ed. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Herring, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Story,
Miss Croker and Ernest Allen of Poughkeepsie.

Willenah Terpening, our mail carrier, is enjoying two weeks' vacation.
Mont. Cole is taking his place.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Weiser were called to New York last Saturday to attend the funeral of her brother,
who died suddenly.

The family of the late Mrs. M. A.
Ellison wish to express their most
sincere thanks to all who in any way
helped to lighten their burden of sor-
row during the illness, death and funeral of their mother and grandmother,
and to all who sent flowers while she
was ill and the funeral, and to the
Rev. C. Van Oostenbrugge, the
Rev. S. T. Cole and D. W. Benton for
their comforting and consoling
words; and we would not forget to
thank the organist and singers for
rendering their part which was very impressive and for which we were
very grateful.

Lafayette Holstein was in this
place over Lincoln's birthday.

Letter of Appreciation.
Kingston, N. Y., Feb. 16, 1916.

We, the Publicity Committee of
the Union Evangelical Movement,
held in this city for the past three
weeks, takes pleasure in extending
our sincere thanks for the untiring effort given:

First: In the displaying of window cards by business houses.

Second: To the boys who distributed door-hangers and hand-bills.

Third: To the Sunday school
classes which assisted in preparing
hangers and tags.

Fourth: To all others, who by
their impartiality and interest helped
to assure the great work, success.

Respectfully yours,

PORT EWEN.

Port Ewen, Feb. 16.—Esopus
Council, No. 42, Sons and Daughters
of Liberty, will meet this evening
at 7:30 o'clock in their rooms in Hutton's Hall.

Mrs. F. H. Oswald and Miss Mil-
dred Oswald of Brooklyn were week
end guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Groves on Broadway.

Division No. 3, of the Ladies' Aid
Society of the Methodist Church,
will hold a clam chowder sale in the
chapel Friday, February 18.

Chowder will be ready by noon. Or-
George W. Shultis or with any of the members. The chairman of the division, Mrs. Anna Elting, superin-
tends the making of the chowder,
and she has the reputation of making the best ever. Price 25 cents a quart.

The prayer meeting Thursday
evening will be of a new feature
for the Methodists. The gentlemen
will meet in the chapel, and the
ladies in the parsonage, both meetings to commence at 7:30. A large attendance is desired.

Vincent LeFever, engineer on the tug Saranac, New York city, is spending a few days at his home on Broadway.

Howard Proper is ill at his home
on Salem street. Dr. G. W. Ross is
in attendance.

1520—A Simple Popular Frock for

Mother's Girl—Girl's Dress With
or Without Belt, and With Sleeve
in Either of Two Lengths.

Batiste, lawn, percale, gingham,
chambray, taffeta, repp or voile,
cashmere or poplin are all good for
this attractive style. The dress portions are mounted on a square yoke,
and the fullness below the yoke por-
tions may be gathered or shirred, or
mounted as illustrated with shirring.

The pattern is cut in 4 sizes,
4, 6, 8 and 10 years. It requires 3 1/2
yards of 36 inch material for a 6
year size.

A pattern of this illustration
mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps by the
Pattern Department, The Freeman,
Routout, N. Y. Be sure to state the
size wanted.

ALLABEN.
Allaben, Feb. 15.—Mr. and Mrs.
Charles Clearwater, who have been
spending the winter months in Union Hill, N. J., with their daughter, Mrs. C. Quenby, have returned
to their home.

Mrs. Jane Wright, who has been quite ill with cold and grip, is improving at this writing.

Quite a few people attended the
quarterly conference of the Methodist Churches at Big Indian Sunday.
John Evans conveyed the party to
that place.

Mrs. Theron Townsend and mother, Mrs. Melissa Wood of Shandaken
were guests of Mrs. Charles Blakes-
ley last Wednesday at dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Segilken of
Phoenix are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a boy at
their home Thursday night. He has been named Herbert Clifford Segil-
ken, Jr.

Miss Anna Lafferty has gone to
Oneonta for a visit.

Sunday and Monday were the
coldest days we have had this win-
ter. Some reported that the temperature was seventeen below zero.

No trouble about getting ice if this weather continues.

G. B. Riseley expects to cut ice
from the pond of W. Coons in Shan-
daken.

Mrs. G. F. Van Keuren is greatly
missed in this village. She is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. H. Dick-
son, in Arena.

Quite a few people in this vicinity
are ill with the grip. The wise ones
will stay away from people who
have this disease as it is contagious.

Little Virginia Van Keuren of Kingston is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van
Keuren.

Glee Club Will Attend.
The members of the Y. M. C. A.
Glee Club will attend the chicken pie
supper at the Y. M. C. A. this evening. Plates will be laid for them
and they will sit down to eat at 6:30
o'clock. All the new members of
the chorus will eat at the same time.

This supper is given by the Ladies'
Auxiliary for the benefit of the boys
of the Y. M. C. A. and the proceeds
will be used to purchase a Diamond
Disc machine.

Optimistic Thought.
Even innocuous stuff is liable to

NEW HURLEY.
New Hurley, Feb. 16.—Mrs. El-

THEY SAY.

"You can have this magazine for
nothing," spoke a slippery tongued
agent to an uptown man yesterday.
"If you buy it with Blank's (a 16-
cent magazine) for 55 cents," he
added. His offer was too glowing
for reality, however, and the prospective purchaser thought of the
"Fall Guys."

The groundhog theory of weather
prognostication held good for exactly eleven days. But at that the prediction is about as accurate as any-
thing from Washington forecasters,
who on Monday proclaimed "rising
temperatures" for the next 24 hours.
The only rise was that obtained by
the elements out of the weather
sharps.

A hot cup of coffee was absent
from many breakfasts yesterday
which may have accounted for any
grouchiness of disposition manifest-
ed in down town business circles.
Not only was the gas congealed but
the milk of human kindness was
frozen stiff within the confines of
many domestic circles. Complaints
to the gas office, however, failed to
indicate any lack of warmth.

Snuggling against the radiators in
the street cars is a popular posture
with travelers. The seats over the
heaters are generally crowded and if conversation is necessary were popular some of the inscriptions would
doubtless read, "Don't crowd," "No
trespassing," and other warnings.
But the atmosphere in the cars is a
guarantee against any fashionable uplift on this line.

There is a regular system of
"spotting" employed by various
moving picture houses in the city
who send checkers about to compet-
ing theaters whose business it is to
count the attendance and note the
attraction. In this way an idea is obtained of the receipts and also as to the pulling power of stars. The hour of 8:30 o'clock or thereabouts
is said to be the most favorable time
to secure accurate attendance dope.

Further proof of the business boom
hitting the country is the fact that
the Barge Manufacturing Company of Canton, Ohio, are forced to re-
strict shipments to the different
agencies on account of the great demand for their manufactures—metal
ceilings, filing cabinets, etc. This is
a $5,000,000 corporation and is un-
able to satisfy all the demands for
their manufactures on account of the scarcity of metals. They allow each
of their distributors a certain quantity of their products.

Traveling men in town relate wonderful tales of the effect the war
boom in munitions has upon cities
which they can pass. They bring almost unbelievable tales of the mushroom growth of certain cities containing munition plants. The room-
ing houses in Bridgeport, Conn., are
so greatly in demand that the room-
ers are obliged to occupy their rooms
only eight hours, the day being divided into three eight hour shifts. All
the rooms in hotels are engaged by
one o'clock in the afternoon and in
order to engage accommodations, a
traveling man must telephone ahead.

LORD CURZON.

FORMER VICEROY OF INDIA FOR NEW PORTFOLIO.

London, Feb. 16.—It is expected
that Lord Curzon, former viceroy of India, will be named as the minister
of aviation, the new portfolio to be added to the British war cabinet.

Lord Northcliffe, through his
newspapers denies that he is a candidate for the new position. He declares that there are men better
able than he to undertake the task.

Commenting editorially on Lord
Northcliffe's refusal to accept the
position, the Daily Mail, one of his
newspapers, says:

"He believes it to be instantly
necessary to appoint an air minister and he believes there is no man
among the twenty-two members of the present cabinet sufficiently informed on the subject to be of any
use in the immediate future when
the German air offensive, according
to all information which reaches us
from Germany, is likely to become
more than serious."

Mackey has been quite ill with the grip.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Corrie are rejoicing over the arrival of an eleven pound daughter born Thursday, February 10th. The child bears the name of Margaret Debra Corrie.

There will be preaching service Sunday morning at the usual hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goodjoine passed their 52nd wedding anniversary on Thursday, Feb. 10.

The Circle met with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Powell on Tuesday evening, Feb. 8. After the business meeting, the evening was spent in rehearsing for the play which is to be given by the circle some time in March.

The Ladies' Aid Society will hold a social tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Radiker on Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 23. Gentlemen as well as ladies will be welcome. A silver offering will be taken.

The thermometer registered 20 degrees below zero in this place on Thursday morning.

Albany Avenue Baptist Church.

On Thursday evening at 7 o'clock the pastor and deacons will meet candidates for church membership. All who intend to join the church at this time are asked to be present at that hour or as soon after as they are able to come. The prayer meeting on Thursday evening at 7:30 ought to be a great rally of members and converts. Tullar and Meridith's song book will be used.

On Sunday evening there will be a post-revival service, in which the members of the chorus choir from this church will sit on the platform and lead in the singing of Tullar and Meridith's revival hymns.

On Monday evening next, February 21, a union meeting and social will be held in this church, at which the pastors, committees, workers and converts from all the churches are expected to be present. Refreshments will be served.

ATHLETIC CONTESTS
AT THE Y.M.C.A.

Another game was played between
the Peaches and Cherries in the Student
B basketball league at the Y. M.
C. A. on Tuesday afternoon which
was won by the former by a score of 26 to 19. The two teams tied for first place at the close of the league
and a series of three games were arranged to decide the championship
team. Each team has now won one
game and the deciding game will be played shortly. The Peaches are Thompson, Every, Kitchner, Horton
and Adams, while the Cherries are Vignes, Bruyn, Fowler, Smith and Leventhal.

The Employed Boys basketball
team will travel to Ellenville on February 26, where they will play the Juniors of the Ellenville high school.
Tuesday evening the big gym was
filled with seniors taking spring tonic
in the form of exercise.

Another game was rolled in the Church Bowling League on Tuesday evening when the downtown Methodists defeated the Albany Avenue
Baptists by a score of 2,053 to 1,901
pins. The summary:

COMMON COUNCIL

It took the city fathers ten minutes to hold the regular meeting on Tuesday evening at the city hall, and
the only business of importance was
the authorization to issue a note for $4,400 and the raising of the salary
of the city hall janitor from $60 to $75 a month owing to increased
work. The meeting night was the
eighteenth anniversary of the blow-
ing up of the Maine in Havana harbor, but none of the aldermen indulged in any bursts of oratory on
the question of preparedness or kindred topics.

The meeting was presided over by
Alderman-at-Large Walter P. Crane
with Aldermen Smith, Schick, Mar-
quardt, Parish, Kullman, Shultis,
Brown and Purvis present. The ab-
sentees were Aldermen McKittick,
Leverich, Fischer, Connelly and Hull.
City Treasurer Doremus sent in a
communication calling attention to
the fact that the city's promissory
note for $4,400 covering part of the
cost of the construction of Andrew
street, Lavan street and Mary's avenue sewer had fallen due.

Alderman Shultis offered a resolution that the mayor be authorized to
issue a new note for the amount,
which was carried.
This is an old note that has been carried along for years as a result of
litigation growing out of the collection of the special assessment. The
city has secured a judgment against
Mrs. Cecelia D. O'Reilly, but pending
an order from the court directing its
issued.

The ways and means committee to
whom had been referred the resolution offered at the last meeting by Alderman Marquardt regarding the
raising of the salary of the city hall
janitor, Richard Dawe, from $60 to $75 a month, reported favorably and
the report was adopted.

Alderman-at-Large Crane announced the appointment of the following committees:

Committee on Auditing Accounts—
Aldermen Leverich (chairman),
Fischer and presiding officer.

Committee on Finance, Ways and Means—Aldermen McKittick (chairman), Kullman and Parish.

Committee on Buildings, Repairs
and Supplies—Aldermen Schick
(chairman), Brown, Hull, Purvis and Marquardt.

Committee on Railroads—Aldermen
Smith (chairman), Shultis and Fischer.

Committee on Laws and Rules—
Aldermen Brown (chairman), Lever-
ich, McKittick, Purvis and Smith.

Committee on Elections—Aldermen
Connelly (chairman), Kullman and Parish.

MT. TREMPER

Mt. Tremper, Feb. 16.—The community was greatly saddened by the
word Sunday morning that Mrs.
James DeVall had passed into rest.
It came as a shock to many as she
had only been ill a few days. She
leaves a host of friends to mourn
the loss of one who was always a
kind neighbor, willing to help any-
one in time of trouble and one
whose place it would be hard to fill.
The deepest sympathy is extended to
the bereaved husband. The funeral
will be held at the Reformed Church
on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. John Davidson of
New York city were called here by
the illness of Mrs. James DeVall.

There were no services on Sunday
at the church on account of the storm.

The play, "Farm Folks," will be repeated on Wednesday evening,
February 16, at the hall, followed
by an oyster supper. The play was a fine success last Friday evening,
in spite of the stormy weather, and
quite a large crowd attended. It
was a success in every way, even the supper as everyone was complimenting
the "oyster stew." Forty dollars was realized last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Silver and daughter, Gertrude, have all been ill
with the grip.

Mrs. Harry Becker is recovering
from an attack of quinsy sore
throat.

The Misses Mabel and Addie Rise-
ley took tea with the Misses Randall
last Wednesday.

Mrs. Hoyt has gone to Philadelphia, where she will visit relatives
for a few weeks.

Miss Tillie Meister has gone to the city for a three weeks' visit.

The friends of Norman Wilber,
hope for his speedy recovery from
City Hospital on Monday.

MENKE'S DAILY

(By Frank G. Menke.)

New York, Feb. 16.—In the history of baseball records no case is
stranger than that of Hal Chase.
Still in the prime of his career,
still the most brilliant fielding first
baseman the game ever has known,
he finds himself an "undesirable,"
finds that no major league club
wants him at any price.

Hal Chase is paying—and dearly,
too—for the folly of other years;
for the follies that he committed,
while still an American Leaguer.
The fact that he is not wanted by
any big league magnates is not due
to the fact that he jumped to the Federal League. Other players did
just as Hal did and have been welcomed back. But Hal's offenses, in
the eyes of the baseball powers,
have been many.

And Hal now must pay.
Probably no player ever was
idolized more than Chase; probably
none, outside of Ty Cobb, Christy
Mathewson and Honus Wagner, ever
were lauded from one end of the
land to the other as was Chase. In
the early years of his connection
with the Yankees, Chase was the sensational of the American League.

Praise Turns Head.

The praise showered upon him
turned the head of Hal Chase. From a modest, retiring youth, he be-sotted into one who became arrogant. He grew to be as tempera-
mental as a prima donna and his
clashes with his teammates became frequent. But Chase because he was a star—and a real one—was coddled and petted by his owners.
Chase reached the crest when he
was made manager of the Yankees.
And the honor made Hal Chase "un-
bearable" in the opinion of his teammates. He ran his team as he
saw fit and soon there were charges
of dissensions in the Yankee camp.

"Chase is a trouble maker," was
throughout New York. Stories began to appear which bitterly criticized Chase; stories that "panned"
him for his conduct. He was accused of listlessness on the ball
field, accused of swarting the best interests of his club. He was accused of many things, some true
but most of the exaggerated or absolutely untrue.

But those stories painted black
the name of Hal Chase. He no
longer was the drawing card of
yore. He still played with the brilliancy of old but no longer was he idolized. And no matter how great
a player a man is the fans don't
warm up to him unless there is something about his personality that
is likable.

Chase Popularity Waned.

Chase lingered longer with the Yankees but his work seemed to fall
off. He no longer played with the same old spirit. The mechanical
skill still was apparent, but there
was no life in his play. And while
the papers hammered him the fans
clamored for his release.

Back in 1910 or 1911 Chase
would have brought around $25,000
on the auction block. But none of
the clubs seemed over anxious to
get him when he was placed on the
auction block. When the White Sox
offered Rolfe Zander, the new bun-ion-less infielder, for "Pete," the Yankees owners eagerly seized
the opportunity—and Chase went to
the White Sox.

For a while, Chase showed flashes
of his old-time skill, but the lacing
that New York had given him
rankled, the thought that he—Hal
Chase, "The Peerless"—had been
traded for two mediocre players,
walloped his pride more than anything else ever had. And with such
feelings pulsing through his brain,
his mind was not on his work, and so
he played only a fair sort of game
for the Sox.

Chase Jumps to Feds.

Just at a time when the Chicagoans
were beginning to make unkind
remarks about him and intimate that
he was a "has-been," Chase got an offer from the Feds—and Chase—
jumped. The bigger salary wasn't
the main factor in deciding that
jump. The real reason was that Hal
Chase looked upon the Federal circuit as a haven of refuge from those
in the American League—who
knocked him.

The American League battled in
court to prevent Chase from playing
in the Federal League. The Americans fought for him in court, not so much to get him out of the Fed as to get him out of the Fed from getting him, but it is said, with the
hope that he would be ruled the
property of the Americans so that
the Americans could ride him out of
the big leagues.

Chase finally was awarded to the Feds, and he played as wonderfully
during the latter part of 1914 and
throughout 1915 as he ever played
in his life. He seemed a changed
man. The "hammering" he had been subjected to had its effect.
Hal Chase became normal again,
he threw his whole heart and soul
in his work and his "comeback" was
one of the sensations of the Fed circuit last year.

No One Wants Him.

Hal Chase today, in the opinion of
many baseball experts, is a more wonderful first baseman than the bulk
of the regulars in both big leagues.
Hal Chase is hitting again in the
way that made him one of the most
feared batsmen in baseball a few
years ago: Hal Chase's mechanical
power is unimpaired, his brain is as
nimble as ever.

But Hal Chase is an "undesir-
able," he offended the baseball
powers, and despite the fact that in
his attitude today he is a changed
man, those powers haven't forgotten.

Hal Chase is an expert—out of a
job; jobless at a time when many
ball clubs need such an expert as Hal
Chase.

There is no baseball "blacklist,"
so we have been told. But is there
a "gentlemen's agreement?"

COTEKILL.

Cotekill, Feb. 16.—The predictions of the "ground hog" seem to
be rather misleading this year. On

Everywhere men complain about
work; even boys and girls in school or
business find work tedious and irk-
some, but it isn't the work half so much
as their own lack of physical strength
that makes it hard.

Rich blood, strong lungs and health-
ful digestion make work pleasurable
in business, in school or even house-
work, and if those who are easily tired
—who are not sick, but weak and nervous—would just take Scott's Emul-
sion for one month and let its pure
concentrated food create richer blood
to pulsate through every artery and
vein—let it build a structure of healthy
tissue and give you vigorous strength
—you would find work easy and would
look for more. Insist on Scott's.

Friday snow began to fall which
continued until Sunday afternoon,
although only about 14 inches fell,
but the temperature began to drop
and on Tuesday had dropped to 29
degrees below zero, and with the 18
or 18 inches of snow, which is now
on the ground, makes one think of
winter.

The Boy Scouts have extended an invitation to the Camp Fire Girls to attend their banquet to be held in their rooms on Friday night.

Miss Margaret Keator delightfully entertained several of her young friends on Wednesday evening last, it being her birthday.

Jacob Osterhoudt is reported to be in a critical condition at the present writing. Early last fall he suffered from a stroke of paralysis,
fined to his bed. One day the past week he had another stroke, which
left him in a very weak condition.

High School to Play Hudson.
If there is any one who imagines
the local high school hasn't a good basketball team, just because the little village of Saugerties trimmed them last Friday, let him come and see the game that our fellows put up against the Hudson five. These fellows from up the river are bringing along a good rep in the basketball line at least and won't anticipate going down in defeat before the victorious maroon and white before they are given ample proof at their own expense. The game starts at eight o'clock sharp Friday evening, and when the game is over at 9 the music will start up, and all those present who care to will be given an opportunity to dance until 11:15.
The home five is of course smarting over the defeat of last week, and will no doubt hand out considerable pop to the visitors, also John Spik,
one of Kingston's football heroes will officiate at the 10:15, and it is said he puts as much spirit in this activity as he formerly did in the gridiron work. Therefore the entertainment will probably be well worth the quarter admission to be charged.

Prince Albert is so friendly and so all-fired-good

that it just makes a man sorry-like that he didn't get onto this pipe thing and cigarette rolling stunt a-while-ago. He counts it lost time quick as the joy us goodness of this P. A. tobacco gets firm set into his happiness division. The patented process fixes that—and cuts out bite and parch!

Men, it's so easy to get on the right track for straight-ahead-action—and the ride only stands you 5c or 10c—that it sure is due you, due your tongue, due your contentment-container to know how much you'll like

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

That tobacco appetite of yours, when it gets going-good, is as fierce as a baby's cry for milk! Right now, while you feel it digging in, do that little old tree act—leave for the nearest store that sells tobacco! And get yours!

Because Prince Albert, jammed into a jimmy pipe or rolled into a makin's cigarette, taxes
the joy-speed-limit! And you'll get the listen of what that means the minute you put some P. A. next to a match! You'll get flavor and aroma and coolness that will set-to-rest-for-all-time any odd notions you ever concocted about pipe-pleasure and makin's pleasure!

All over the U. S.—and in every old-fashioned country in the world—you'll find P. A. Cigarettes smoking very easy to do in every way and satisfying to the taste. They're handsome packed and hold-poured the healthiest—just in that smoking-line cigarette-pleasure container with average-pipe-size top that not only keeps the tobacco in warm moist trim, but is such a satisfying thing to look at!
